Thank You

Thrivent Financial for Lutherans Chapter #30317 would like to thank the Cheyenne County communities for graciously donating to the benefit bake sale for Jason Barnhart held recently. During this time of the year we many times hear how this is the time for giving, but for the Cheyenne County residents, giving isn't just limited to the Christmas season. Thank you for the difference you've made in supporting all of Thrivent's community projects — you are a blessing to the many lives you have touched!

We would like to thank all of you who sent cards, called, brought food to Aunt Dorothy's, and those who gave memorials or flowers during a very difficult time at the loss of my wife and our mother Joyce. Your support has truly helped. Bob, Marsha, Cathy and families

Thank you sounds so little when so many do so much. To our son Jerry, city dispatch, city police, the county EMTs, Dr. Miller and the hospital crew. Thanks, you were all great. Also to our family, Eilene and Sparky, Leonard and Joan and phone calls from Sherri, Kristi, Kathy and Lyle. Don and Phyllis Whitmore

Thank you for the cards, calls, prayers and support given to me. St. Francis is full of "caring people." Marian Miller

Thanks and Merry Christmas to the Lawn Ridge 4-H Club carolers. Don and Phyllis Whitmore

Thanks to all my friends for my birthday party, cards and telephone calls. Bernard Roelfs

Thank you for all the food, calls, cards and visitors while we were in the hospital and recovering at home. Thanks to Dr. Miller and the girls in physical therapy. A special thanks to ValJean Schultz, Scott and Nancy Schultz and Daryl Schultz. Thanks to Karla and Paul for coming to get us. Stan and Neva Wahrman

Thanks and Merry Christmas to Keith and Cinda Santabring. Don and Phyllis

Thanks for the concern shown to us recently. The Kinchelos

Thank you to Judy for the retirement party and to all those who attended especially the Veterinarians I worked with. Also thanks for all the cards and gifts. Shirley Amack
