The Country Advocate

The 900-pound gorilla of northwest Kansas advertising!

Week of March 2, 2011

A common section produced by/supplement to The Oberlin Herald, Colby Free Press, The Goodland Star-News, Bird City Times, The Saint Francis Herald and The Norton Telegram

In loving memory of our Dad, Vinton "Shorty" Pettit, who passed away February 27, 1991. MISSING YOU. Twenty years have gone by, they won't be the last. How time has flown, it seemed so fast. A tear, a thought, a memory of you, we hold in our heart, it's all we can do. Taken from our arms, you walk on Heaven's floor, and day by day we miss you even more. Rest easy now, and watch from above. Remember we miss you, and send you our love. -Love You Dad, Your Daughters.

Let the Gorilla help sell your stuff/

Invite the 900-pound Gorilla to help with your garage sale. You'll have more customers, sell more stuff and make more money. That means more in your pockets at the end of the day, and less junk to haul off to the dump.

How does it work? Simple. While the paper reaches most families in the town, The Country Advocate goes all over northwest Kasnsas. It reaches 41,860 readers in 11 Kansas counties, plus parts of northeastern Colorado and southwest Nebraska.

That's why it's the 900-pound Gorilla of Northwest Kansas Advertising, reaching more homes and more people than any other publication, broadcast station, cable system, Internet page or advertising medium.

Reader after reader has tried The Advocate for their advertising. The results?

Stuff sells. People drive for miles to find a good sale. They don't want to walk away empty-handed. The Gorilla works.

Your newspaper makes it easy for you to be in The Advocate. Just call or stop by and place your ad. You'll be surprised how easy it is, and how affordable. You'll be surprised — and happy — when your phone starts to ring or people show up at your door.

But call today. Deadline for The Advocate is noon Friday, ONE WEEK BEFORE a weekend sale. Sure, you can get an ad in the paper later, but it won't be the same. Call the Gorilla.
