NOTICE
MARCH 1 thru MARCH 31
Mobil® Delvac® Days hits town. Traffic delays expected.
During the month of March, people traveling into town should expect delays, especially around their local Mobil® Delvac® distributor. The cause of this high-volume traffic is the Mobil Delvac Days promotion.
Because of the great deals being offered, farmers from all over the local area are expected to show up. And with savings of 30 cents a gallon on engine oils like Mobil Delvac 1300 Super (which, by the way, is designed for more than 200 hours between drain intervals) and on Mobilfluids, can you blame them? So, you might want to keep a lookout for slow-moving farm equipment. Also watch for a large number of people around town wearing new Delvac gloves. They are free with a purchase of 100 gallons or more.
