Pride planning future projects

The Rexford Pride meeting was held on March 20 at the Community Building. A spaghetti supper was served to the 18 present by Delores Dible, Berneda Zoberst, Peg Greenwood and Kathi Hapke. Projects planned for the future include a city wide cleanup in May, a rummage sale in June, and also help with the Prairie Heritage Day in Colby in June. Ila Timson of Atwood demonstrated many crafts that can be made with recyclable items at the meeting.

Dinner guests of Grace Cheney on Sunday, March 18, were Caren and Aaron Derbonne, Matt and Lyn Cheney, Jody Wright, a friend of Lyn, Gary and Kay Cheney. After the dinner the ladies went over to Lyn's house for a home interior decoration party.

Rex and Betty Carswell and Eula Juenemann of Oberlin attended funeral services on Tuesday for a cousin, Jim Schoen in Smith Center. On Wednesday the three went to Paradise, for the funeral of another cousin, Rozella Smith.

Deb Stepper hosted the Social Hour Club at the Barn Wednesday afternoon with eight present. The afternoon was spent visiting and playing games. Cards were signed to send to Marge Leh and Ilene McPhail.

Vesta Roth won the hostess gift. The next meeting will be April 4 with Eileen Dible in Colby.

Marge Leh returned home Wednesday from visiting relatives for a month in the Enid, Okla., area. Tragedy had happened in the family and there were three deaths, Marge's brother Bob Coulter on March 12, and brother Harry J. Hye on March 14, Harry's wife Treasa who died the latter part of February. A daughter-in-law is seriously ill and her son's father-in-law Armund Boling who lived in Santa Fe, N.M. died this week. Far too much tragedy to happen to one family. Marge and her family thank everyone for all the cards, prayers and letters they received.

The Royal Neighbors met Thursday afternoon at the Community Hall with eight present. Some donations were made to the Dogs for the Deaf, and Habitat Homes, both sponsored by Royal Neighbors. Deb Stepper served refreshments.

Pierce potatoes with a fork. Arrange in a circle on paper towels in microwave oven. Microwave on high for 6 minutes; turn potatoes over and microwave for 6 more minutes or until done. Let stand five minutes. Pre-heat broiler. Cut each potato in half length-wise; scoop out pulp into mixing bowl. Set shells aside. Combine potato pulp, ham, 1/2 of the cheese, 1/2 of the onions, sour cream and pepper. Spoon the potato mixture into shells. Combine remaining cheese and onions and sprinkle over potato halves. Place on baking sheet and broil four minutes or until golden. Makes 8 servings.

It's almost time for garage sale

It just seems like yesterday, when I was reminding you of last years City Wide Garage Sale, but now it is time for the one for 2001. Start looking over your belongings, and sorting out the ones that are not used by you that much, anymore. It might be just the 'necessity' that the fellow down the street needs. And, maybe, your neighbor will decide it is time to get rid of that power tool that you have been wanting. Anyway, the first Saturday in June is going to be here before we know it.

The Craft Peddler had a big Spring open house, on March 24 and 25. Hope you were able to take advantage of all the bargains and fresh craft ideas, plus the drawings for prizes. Just in case you are wondering about the Bob Ross painting classes, they will be on Saturday, June 23, and Sunday, June 24. I have seen some of the artwork results of these classes, and the enjoyment of those who participated, and I believe it would be a spirit lifter for anyone that wants to 'create' their own masterpiece. Stop in and sign up, if you are interested.

Now, here's another reminder of the "$5 and Alive" course that will be held at the Senior Center on the April 17 and 18. We've had a few sign up and hope we get more. There are some insurance companies that will lower insurance a little if you take this program, but even if it doesn't cut your rate, the purpose is to save a life, and that is worth a lot more than a discount on your insurance, isn't it? I hope to hear from you.

Tired of hearing about all the events coming up? Well, now we'll talk about some of the things that folks have been doing.

I'm happy to report that Susan Montaglio is on the mend, and is looking like she feels very good. Her hospital stay helped get her on her feet, and we hope the same thing will happen to Corky Wolfe. He has been in the hospital for a few days, and we hope he is going to feel much better when he gets home. Cliff Starkey has also had a stay in the hospital, and we hope he is feeling better, too.

Wilma Burk enjoyed having her sister, Alma Wondersee from Denver, spend a few days with her. Alma came to Brewster with some friends that were going to Oakley for a few days, so it worked out good for Wilma and Alma to have a little reunion.

Frances Jones was also able to spend time with family. She went to Olathe, Wetmore and Topeka for visits with her daughters and grandkids. She says she also enjoyed playing with her great grandchildren, and I'll bet the kids had fun, too.

Ruth and Duane Jones had their daughter, Monna Rose and Mike Blank, here from New Caney, Texas, for a few days. The Blank's sons and families were also here, and Ruth said the boys, Caleb and Aaron, helped her with some tasks that needed doing. It sure is nice for these young folks to be able to lend a hand for the chores that are just a little too difficult for us to do as we get older, isn't it?

Nina Griffin will celebrate her 97th Birthday on Saturday, March 31st

Her family invites you to a birthday party in her honor on Saturday from 2:00-4:00 p.m. in the 400 Hall Dining Room at Prairie Senior Living Complex.

If you are unable to attend, cards will reach her at PSLC - Nina Griffin, 1625 S. Franklin, Colby, KS 67701.
