

Safe!

JAY KELLEY/Colby Free Press

Cara Liuzzi looked to the umpire after a play at home in the first game of a Colby Community College double-header against Brown-Mackie. Liuzzi was safe and scored the winning run of a 6-5 game. The Lady Trojans were up 1-0 in the second game when rain forced a halt to play in the middle of the third inning. The game will be replayed.

Eagle tennis is first in Scott City

The Colby High School Eagles tennis team claimed first place in Scott City in Saturday, led by first place finishes by both doubles teams.

The no. 1 doubles team of Brian Wolf and David Victor continue to have a perfect record, winning all of their matches. In match one, the duo easily defeated the doubles team of Ulysses 7-0.

Next, they downed Ness City 7-1 and Garden City 7-3. In their final match of the day, Wolf and Victor beat Scott City 7-1. With a record of 4-0, the no. 1 doubles brought home first place medals.

Chris Erickson and Travis Button, playing at the no. 2 doubles, went 5-0 and earned first place medals. In their first two matches, they defeated Goodland and Ulysses, both by the score of 7-5.

Ness City's no. 2 doubles team was no match for the duo as they beat them 7-1. In the final two matches of the day, Erickson and Button beat the Garden City team 7-6 (7-4 tie-breaker) and another Garden City team, playing in Scott City's slot, 7-6 (7-2 tie-breaker).

Matt Murray placed second at no. 1 singles for the Eagles with a record of 4-1. In his first match he defeated Goodland 7-1, then went on to defeat Ulysses 7-0. Murray lost to Hill City's only player in the tournament 7-3, but rebounded with wins over Garden City and Scott City, 7-2, 7-1 respectively.

At no. 2 singles, Phil Schindler opened the tournament with a 7-5 victory over Goodland. HE lost the next two matches, first to Ulysses 7-0 and then to Garden City 7-6 (7-3 tie-breaker). Schindler came back strong to finish the tournament with a 7-0 win over Scott City. With a 2-2 record, he brought home a third place medal.

With both doubles teams placing first, and a second and third place in singles, Colby easily outscored the other five teams participating in the tournament. The Eagles will be in action again on Thursday in WaKeeney at 9:30 a.m. and hosting the Colby Invitational Tournament at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday.

Jayvee at WaKeeney on Thursday
The junior varsity tennis team went to WaKeeney on Thursday, taking sixth.

The no. 1 doubles team, Tanner Holloway and Doug Hurtt, went 1-2, taking fourth. They lost 8-3 to Russell, beat Garden City 8-7(7-6) and lost to Goodland 8-6.

Ian Myers went 1-3, placing sixth at no. 1 singles. He won the first match against Goodland, then lost three to Russell, Cimarron and Goodland.

Chris Barnum went 0-2 at no. 1 singles, losing 8-5 to Cimarron and 8-4 to WaKeeney.

The jayvee is in action on Tuesday at 3 p.m. in Russell.

Golf is sixth in Oberlin

The Colby High School golf team went to Oberlin on Saturday, finishing sixth with a team score of 369. Goodland took first with a 343.

Justin Schwanke tied for 10th with an 88, the best finish among the Eagles. Joey Dinkel had a 92.

Parker McKee had a 94. Deni Wieland had a 95. Chris Veeh had a 96 and Derek White had a 105.

The next golf meet is in Hoxie on Tuesday at 3 p.m.

Trojans earn split with 11th inning win

The Colby Community College Trojan baseball team split with Trinidad State at Trojan Field on Wednesday, losing game one 5-2 but coming back to win game two 5-4 in 11 innings.

Troy Bartell gave up just two earned runs in five innings, but had to take the loss as the Trojans could not hold off Trinidad State.

Bartell gave up six hits and four walks and struck out seven batters. Freshman right-hander Cullen Gibreath, normally at third base or designated hitter, pitched two innings in his first appearance of the season. He allows two hits and one run, struck out one and walked two.

Mike Dove had two doubles to lead the offense.

Freshman shortstop Josh Prickett's double in the bottom of the 11th finished what assistant coach Ray Nolan called "both the longest, and at points the most frustrating game of the season."

In the bottom of the sixth Jeff Theisen hit what could have been the right center gap, scoring the winning runs.

Sophomore right-hander James Allen got the win, pitching 5 2/3 innings of relief, with six strikeouts to keep the Trojans in the game.

Starter Nick Geronimo and Brian Berryman teamed up with Allen for 14 strikeouts and only two earned runs. Prickett had two hits along with Zack Andrews and J.B. Jordan.

The Trojans are at Barton County in Great Bend at 1 p.m. on Wednesday.

game winning RBI double.

Instead, Trinidad's Shane Haas hit a game-tying homer in the top of the seventh with two outs.

With the bases loaded in the bottom of the 11th, Prickett hit a double to the
