Death

Frieda Depe

Frieda Depe, 93, of Colby, died Sunday, April 22, 2001, at the Prairie Senior Living Complex. Funeral arrangements are pending with Kersenbrock Funeral Chapel.

David Lane Keller

David Lane Keller, beloved husband, father, son, brother, uncle and friend, was tragically killed in a car accident April 15, 2001.

David was the only son of Ben and Elsie Keller and brother to four sisters, who left a novel of memories made in his 40 short years. Dave was a fun loving, hard working young man. He attended Winona Grade School, Junior High, and completed high school in 1979. He then attended Colby Community College. David loved his life of farming and ranching and enjoyed hunting and his fun times with his family and friends.

Dave married Jane Ann Lowe of Winona in 1989. They have two children, David Chase, age 11 and Audrey Layne, age 10. They began their married life together in Page City, and later made their home in Mingo. David cherished his wife and children, family and friends. He enjoyed serving in the Colby community on the Thomas County Fair Board, the Co-Ag Board and Kansas Livestock Association.

David is survived by his wife Jane, son Chase and daughter Audrey all of Mingo; his parents Ben and Elsie Keller of Page City; sisters Brenda and husband Tom Thompson of Parker, Colo., Lana and husband Mike Johnson of Colby, Leanne and husband

Mike Dempewolf of Irving, Texas, and Amy and husband Jack Patrick of Honey Grove, Texas; and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were Thursday at the United Methodist Church, Colby, the Rev. Terry Turner officiating. Pallbearers were Paul Heskett, Daryl Ferguson, Kent Siruta, Ross Cranston, Stan Molstad, Kevin Kriss, Troy Faulkender and Dennis Mackley. Jeff Wagoner was musician.

Burial was in the Oakley Cemetery, Oakley. Services were conducted by Kersenbrock Funeral Chapel, Colby.

Our Dear Loving Dad by Audrey

Your soul shimmers peacefully across the clouds and through the stars. Even though your body is not here right now, we know your heart and soul will be with ours. Though we part in death and tears, we'll always be together. In our dreams we will meet again, and we will love you forever.

Diann Gerstner reported that Trash Pickup Day will be Friday, April 27. We will be meeting at 9 a.m. at the Larry's IGA parking lot. President Lois reported on the many resolutions and events which will be held at the next national convention in St. Paul, Minn. She then introduced Phyllis Elliott who gave a program on Laughter. April is national humor month. Phyllis assured us that humor can improve our health and immune system. Phyllis shared many delightful stories and humorous cards which she has received from her daughters. She also told us of the four books written by Effie Leland Wilder which deal with living in a retirement home. Phyllis gave us a potpourri of "Miss Hattie's" humor concerning women, age, marriage, sex and religion. The lighthearted program was enjoyed by all members and guests. Lois Van Horn and Verna Wiens served as hostesses. The next meeting will be at Prairie

Mr. and Mrs. John Biel

John Robert and Carol Jeanne (McNeff) Biel were united in marriage at St. Johns Lutheran Church in Waco, NE. on October 14, 2000 with Pastor Doug Waltemath officiating.

Parents of the bride are Bruce and Jeanne McNeff of Brule, Ne. and the groom's parents are Bill and Bev Biel of Colby, Ks. Grandparents of the bride are Mrs. Reba McNeff of Brule, Ne. and Mr. Norman Frates also of Brule, Ne. Grandparents of the groom are Mrs. Rose Grigsby of Colby, Ks., and Mr. Elmer Biel of Ogallala, Ne.

The bride's colors were navy blue and white. Bridal attendants and flower girl wore floor length gowns of navy blue and carried a white long stemmed rose accented with white ribbon and pearls. The bride chose a traditionally styled gown designed by Madeline Gardner of Mori Lee Bridal fashioned of duchess satin and venise lace. The fitted bodice featured a deep scooped neckline that was beautifully accented by a roping of crystal and seed pearls. The princess panel skirt was nicely detailed with beaded venice lace appliques, covered buttons flowed down the back to meet the petal shaped chapel length train. The hand made veil featured a butterfly style of satin edged toule and beaded headband. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses with blue accent flowers and spays of pearls.

The wedding party included Matron of Honor, Toni Hindman sister of the bride, Lincoln, Ne., Bridesmaids, Amy Triplette, Becky Stuart, Tara Galaviz, and Hilary Kavan. The flower girl was Talisha Galaviz. Best Man was Adam Furr of Kansas City, Mo. And groomsmen were Kelly Porter, Alex DeBaun, Brandon Bozone, and Auby Ninemier. Ring bearer was nephew of the bride, Seynen McNeff. Ushers were friends of the Groom, Mitch Emig and Nathan Bergman. Guest book attendants were Lynnette Stedry, sister of the groom and Paula Keuhn, cousin of the bride. Personal attendant to the bride was friend Andrea Walker.

The couple hosted a reception and dance at the York Country Club following the wedding ceremony. Cake servers were Aunts of the groom, Mrs. Joan Clark of Grand Island, and Mrs. Bard Woodrum of Gering, Ne. The couple took a honeymoon trip to Eureka Springs, Arkansas, and now make their home in York, Ne. where the bride is employed at York General Hospital and the groom owns and operates JB's Metal Polishing.
