

Wesleyan inks Selden standout

SALINA — Cody Shaw, Selden, has signed with Kansas Wesleyan University.

A 5'11" guard, Shaw was selected All-League as a senior for Golden Plains High School in the Western Kansas Liberty League in 2000.

After attending Colby Community College last year, Shaw said he wanted to give basketball another try.

"I thought about Kansas Wesleyan last year, but went to Colby instead. This year I took a visit the weekend of the Heart of America All-Star game," said Shaw.

"Up to now, my basketball highlight was the Colby Community College All-Star Game. I hope to have a lot more highlights at Wesleyan."

"Shaw did well on his visit," said Jerry Jones, Wesleyan men's basketball coach and athletic director.

"He has a fine stroke, and with eight openings on our squad, he'll have a chance to show his skills."

Shaw is the son of Rick and Tammy Shaw, Selden.

Out at home

Larned's Trixi Rodriguez tagged home after being tagged by Goodland catcher Tammy Weeter in semi-final action of the Class 4A High School Softball Tournament at the Colby Recreation Fields Wednesday night. Rodriguez' couldn't fool the umpire, but the Indians went on to beat Goodland 11-1 in five innings. Larned went on to win the regional championship 4-1 over Ulysses in the second game.

Denver quarterback mending after surgery

DENVER (AP) — Four months after undergoing reconstructive shoulder surgery, Denver Broncos quarterback Brian Griese is throwing again.

Griese, the NFL's top-rated quarterback last season, began testing his right shoulder about two weeks ago and was upbeat after another workout at team headquarters Tuesday.

"It felt pretty good," he said. "I just want to try to get the endurance up. ... I'm happy it's coming along as good as it has."

Griese separated his shoulder Oct. 13 and missed five straight games before aggravating the injury in Denver's regular-season finale. He was sidelined for the playoffs and had surgery Jan. 10.

Despite the setback, Griese finished with 19 touchdowns and just four interceptions.

He was rewarded with a six-year, $39 million contract last month, and hopes to participate in Denver's next mini-camp in June.

Joining Griese on the field Tuesday was running back Terrell Davis, who missed 23 games the last two years because of a torn ligament in his right knee and a stress fracture in his left leg.

Davis did not participate in Denver's first mini-camp May 4-6.

Also Tuesday, Denver's KCNC-TV reported that the Broncos are close to signing veteran quarterback Steve Beuerlein, who was released by the Carolina Panthers on March 19.
