Weekend accident puts one in hospital

There were lots of activities over the weekend, and some of them were pretty worrisome. Paxton Crumbaker and Sarah Heier of Colby were in an accident south of Oakley on Saturday morning about 11 a.m. Paxton was flown to Swedish Medical Center in Denver for treatment of serious injuries, and Sarah was treated and released from Logan County Hospital. It sounds as though Paxton's injuries, although serious, were not as serious as first reported. I am sure he will have a long convalescence, so keep a cheerful prayer going his way. His Address is: Paxton Crumbaker, c/o Swedish Medical Center, 501 Hampden, Englewood, Colo. 80110. I am certain any mail sent in care of Ray Crumbaker, 194 Co. Rd. 3, Brewster, 67732 will get to him. We are also very happy that Sarah Heier was not seriously injured. It's a short trip from accident to tragedy, and we are thankful this stayed in the accident stage. Graduations will be this weekend. I made an error on the time for the 8th graduation. It will be at 7 p.m. I hope it doesn't throw anyone off schedule. Keeping in the medical reports, a nice note was received from Marla Gilley Giarratona of Phoenix. She wanted me to let people know that after six years of battling cancer, her father, John Gilley, has been placed in hospice care. Cards can be sent to: John Gilley, Hospice of St. John, 1320 Everett Court, Lakewood, Colo. 80215. I'm sure John would appreciate a note from old acquaintances.

Got another note for remembering someone, but this is for an 80th birthday. Former resident Dale Dunlap who now lives in New Mexico, will have a special day on June 11. She is the mother of Jerry, Larry and Marvin and they are requesting a card shower for their mother. Her address is: Dale Dunlap, 1200 Sandia Drive, Clovis, N.M. 88101. We send our best to Dale on this milestone.

A big thank you for those who are responding to Marge Westover's plight. I know she will be pleased to know how many have been interested in this. She will be home in a few days.

ROTARY

President Nancy LePell presided on May 8. Guests were members of Girl Scout Troop 158, Nicole Frahm, Shanda Reed, Heather Morgan, and Tasha Diederich. They are Senior Girl Scouts who took a trip last summer. They started the trip by flying to Amsterdam. Then they went to Germany, Italy, Switzerland, and Paris. They visited historic sites and learned about different cultures. Some of the places they visited were the Ann Frank House, Dachau, windmill and shoe factory, castle tour, crystal factory, statues and monuments. The girls spent 20 days. The girls did all the planning for this trip. They are now working on their Gold Award. This entails 30 hours leadership, 35 hours community service, exploring a career; a challenge which entails contributing to society, developing oneself, and teaching others about Girl Scouts.

Wayne Horlacher talked about his trip to the district meeting in Concordia. Things they talked about were the Polio Plus Program, District Student Exchange Fellowship, Hunger Plus Program, Rotary Youth Leadership Award and projects of clubs throughout the year.

EASTERN STAR

Colby Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, met Monday night with Worthy Matron Christa Nye and Worthy Patron Roy Searls presiding.

The charter was draped in memory of Sister Berniece McDougal who died.

After a short business meeting the chapter closed and guests were invited into the chapter room for installation of officers. Christa Nye was installing officer, Elma Lee Erickson, installing marshal, Roy Searls, installing chaplain and Pauline Layland, installing organist.

The chapter room was beautifully decorated with sunflowers and butterflies. A special bouquet adorned the East, a gift from Susan Wilson and Ruth Henderson for their mother, Mary Molstad.

Collection of wartime letters published

DEAR READERS: I'm delighted to tell you about a special book that's hot off the presses this month titled "War Letters: Extraordinary Correspondence From American Wars" (Scribner). It features never-before-seen letters from the Civil War, World War I, World War II, Korea, Vietnam, the Persian Gulf and even Bosnia. It is edited by a dedicated young man named Andy Carroll.

Abigail Van Buren
 • Dear Abby

What makes this book so special is that YOU helped to write it. Several years ago I told you about Andy's all-volunteer organization, the Legacy Project, that honors and remembers America's veterans by preserving their war letters. I encouraged you to look through your closets, attics and basements for old war correspondence and to send photocopies of anything historic, impassioned or dramatic to Andy's attention.

The response was overwhelming. Tens of thousands of remarkable letters were received, and 200 of them are being published, all for the first time, in "War Letters." I am struck by the power and eloquence of the letters you contributed. Many are inspiring, some are heartbreaking, all of them are unforgettable.

These letters celebrate our greatest American values — honor, faith, courage and perseverance. They remind us that wars are won not by generals and presidents, but by the individual soldiers, Marines, sailors, airmen, Coast Guard and nurses whose voices are so often forgotten.

They are our true heroes. "War Letters" lets their voices be heard.

All earnings from this book are being donated to veterans groups, and Andy has established a Web site — www.warletters.com — that offers free information on how to safeguard your old letters, as well as links to respected organizations that preserve wartime letters, photos and journals.

Future generations of Americans need to understand and appreciate the high cost of freedom. This book is a lasting tribute to our men and women in uniform and the enormous sacrifices they have made for all of us. It is available in your local bookstore.

all married with kids of their own, are forever telling me I look like a "dork"! They say that colored socks should never be worn with athletic shoes. Please don't advise me to switch to leather shoes, as they are hard on my feet.

How can I make my children understand that I am not trying to be a misfit, but only trying to be comfortable in my "golden years"?

NO SLAVE TO FASHION IN SAN MARCOS
DEAR NO SLAVE: My "fashion experts" tell me that if people can see your socks, your trousers may be too short. However, if that's not your problem, consider that athletic shoes come in a variety of color combinations, and you can always coordinate your shoes and socks to match your outfit.

P.S. Consult a podiatrist about foot powder to relieve what's itching you.

Dear Abby is written by Pauline Phillips and daughter Jeanne Phillips.

Thank You
 The family of Florence Rahe wishes to thank those who sent cards, telephoned, visited, sent food, memorials, and/or flowers. Words can hardly express how much we appreciate everything that has been done. Special thanks go out to the administration and staff of Lantern Park Manor...you will forever be in our hearts. Thank you for taking such good care of mom and dad. To Dr. Hildyard, Deanna and Janet - we know "You do Care!" Thanks for all that you have done. May God bless each and everyone of you.
