Great-granddaughter and great-grandson added

Troy Dillinger reports that his family continues to grow, and he is proud to announce the two newest members, a great-granddaughter and a great-grandson. Lindsay Kay Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Taylor, and granddaughter of Wilma (Dillinger) Forbes, was born in Phoenix, Ariz., recently. In Wamego, Dr. Kyle and Kelly Dillinger welcomed Zachary Troy Dillinger, and the little guys grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dillinger. Troy says there are several in the family that have been blessed to share his name with him, and that makes him very happy. Another change in the grandchildren's lives, is Edwin's daughter, Laura and her family, Terry and sons, of eastern Kansas. They will be relocating to Alaska, to be teachers, the next school year. The four of them will double the white population of the area they are going to, so I would imagine their two sons will learn some Eskimo traditions. It sounds like things are staying exciting in the Dillinger family.

The alumni letters will be coming your way soon, if you are an alumnus. And, also, there will be some reunions.
