Couple celebrating 50 years

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis McKenrick of Edson, formerly of Grampian, Pa., will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception from 2-5 p.m. July 8 at the Buffalo Inn Convention Center in Goodland.

Mr. McKenrick and the former Roselda Haney of Franklin, Pa., were married Aug. 25, 1951, in the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church in Franklin.

They have lived in Kansas since 1953, where they came to pastor a church, but entered the teaching profession where Curtis had taught in various school systems. He retired from teaching in 1990.

Friends and relatives are invited to share this Golden Celebration with them. They now reside at Box 186, Edson, Kan. 67733. No gifts please; a note from friends and relatives who can't attend would be appreciated. It helps us to keep in touch.

Oklahoma accident victim remembered in Winona

Ivan Babb has reported that his mother, Kay Babb of Altus, Okla., died following a tractor accident in June. Herman, Kay and Ivan Babb cut wheat in the Winona area for many years during the 1970s. Herman died about 10 years ago. They will be remembered by many locals.

Rosalie Bussen was a Wednesday and overnight guest of her mother, Edith Wigington in Quinter.

daughter Joyce Boehme, Craig and Kelly Hillman and Natasha. She attended the 50th wedding anniversary reception for her brother, Lewis and Carolyn Nowak on Sunday, June 24.

Woman attends wedding and visits former shipmates

Peg Greenwood was in Massachusetts for two weeks to attend the wedding of her nephew Jack Monaghan on June 23. Before attending the wedding, which was held at Teaticket on Cape Cod, she visited with her brother, Art Weathers, and sister, Ginny Monaghan, in Massachusetts, and brother Tom Weathers in Castleton, N.Y. She also visited with several Navy shipmates from her years in the Navy during the Korean War.

Everyone is invited to attend the program of the Creative Arts Camp on Friday, July 6, at 7 p.m. at Shepherd's Staff in Rexford. There will be a puppet show and the children's program also.

fee grinder, two butter churns, and demonstrated the corn sheller, water pump, sharpening razor blades, washing clothes by hand then running them through the wringer. There was quilting, and rug making. They had embroidered tea towels and home made cookies to sell. Other antiques were displayed. Those who took part were Lawrence and Zula Horinek, Dick and Eunice Sanford, Rex Carswell, Jean Hawkins, Deb Stepper, Grace Cheney, Edna Colson, Tracy King and Duane Cheney.

Cleda Moeder took her grandson,

Taylor Moeder of Colby, to Hutchinson last Saturday to attend a farewell barbeque for Christopher Moeder who will be leaving for the Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md., on June 29. Christopher is the son of Robert and Marsha Moeder. Over 70 people attended the barbeque which was held in the Moeders' back yard. Cleda took Taylor to the Cosmosphere and also the Imax Dome theater while there. They returned home Monday evening.

The Missionary meeting was held at Karen Hibbs' home Tuesday afternoon with nine present. Diana Taylor opened the meeting with prayer and also read an interesting article on how the Salvation Army was started. Two letters from missionaries were read and information given on other missionaries our church helps support. Karen served cake and sherbet with coffee or tea for refreshments. Everyone enjoyed going out to their home. Edna Colson will be the hostess on July 31.

Club News

ABILENE HUSTLERS 4-H CLUB

The regular monthly meeting of the Abilene Hustlers 4-H club was held May 7. The junior officers were in charge of the meeting. Thirty-three members answered roll call of the year they will graduate from high school. Heather Griggs led the club in singing I've been working on the Railroad.

There was a photography meeting May 14 at 4 p.m. at the 4-H building. Arts & Crafts will meet June 18 at 9 a.m. at the 4-H building to make garden stepping-stones. The council reported that livestock superintendents are needed.

Lynette Koon asked the club to help with cleaning up the city on May 8 after school at the recycling center. Anyone interested in helping in the food stand during the fair talk to Sue Draper.

Committees for the fair float and booth are still needed, please talk to Sue if you would like to be on one of these committees.

Heather Griggs gave a project talk on how to make beaded key chains. The dog project was the topic of Seth Bredemeier's project talk. Ashley Kappeman's project talk was about her role in her school newspaper. Jennifer Kappeman read the poem Mirror, Mirror. Preparing and grooming her horse was the topic of Shanda Draper's demonstration. And Janessa Rasmussen demonstrated how to make a picture holder.

The next meeting will be June 4 at the 4-H building at 7:30. Roll call will be your summer plans. Hosts are the Tom Rundel and the Erickson's family. Joanna Hawk will assist the vice-president with calling.

She got to watch Natasha play ball also. Joyce also attended the reception.

The 2001 wheat harvest is underway. It's pretty spotty and not too good. Much was plowed up.

Rosalie Bussen motored to Wallace on Friday, June 22, to the home of Diana and Bill Bauman. Danielle Cloyd celebrated her 13th birthday with cake and ice cream. Also present were Amber Cloyd, Carol, Cody and Caimeen Bussen.

Visitors of Roger and Marge Ausmus to help with harvest are Glen Ausmus of Denver, and Dennis Sporing of WaKeeney.
