Ripken goes out with bang

SEATTLE (AP) — On the night when all of baseball gathered to honor him, Cal Ripken delivered his own All-Star sendoff.

Ripken upstaged Ichiro Suzuki, Barry Bonds and every other big name in the ballpark, hitting a home run and winning the MVP award in his final All-Star appearance to lead the American League over the Nationals 4-1.

What began as a trip down memory lane wound up with him taking a glorious trip around the bases as the AL won its fifth in a row.
