Death

Frederick Earls Griffin Frederick Earls Griffin, 65, died Sunday, July 15, 2001, at his farm home South of Colby.

He was born in Thomas County near Colby, on Oct. 18, 1935; the sixth child of Amos Henry and Nina Maude Chadwick Griffin. He attended a country school until fourth grade when he entered the Colby Public School system, where he met his future wife, Myrna Lucille Metzler. They were married at a private ceremony on Jan. 24, 1953, in the home of the Rev. Gunkel in Colby. They had four daugh-

After a few years of employment at local grocery stores, he was the youngest retail merchant in Colby when he purchased Griffin's Grocery at the age of 21. It became a hangout for young people. After 15 years, the grocery store was closed in 1972 due to the Urban Renewal Project in Colby. Having four daughters and no athletic programs available for the local females, Fred was active in organizing and coaching girls track and softball teams in Colby. He was also involved in starting the Special Olympics program and the swim team. After his coaching one of the local female runners who placed in the National AAU Jr. Olympics in Washington D.C., the Colby schools started a girls' sports program.

Fred spent caring hours with many people selling insurance after the closing of the "Little Store." His dream of returning to the farm and raising hogs was finally fulfilled in 1983 when he and Myrna purchased a farm south of Colby where he spent the remainder of his life. His greatest pride was his daughters, his grandchildren and great grandchildren. His happiest times were spent with his family and beloved dog GiGi, many of which included camping and fishing together. His love of children was exemplified when he was active as Santa Claus in the community, including many private parties, homes and three years at Wal-mart. He was also very proud to be a member of the Colby High School class of 1954 and continued to be active in meeting with all the local members of this class on a regular basis. After receiving Christ in his life in December 1999, he became an active attendee of College Drive Assembly of God.

He was preceded in death by a son, Terrance LeRoy; father, Amos Henry; one brother; and three grandchildren. He is survived by his wife of 48 1/2 years of marriage, Myrna; four daughters and spouses, Kat and Wes Hopson of Loveland, Colo., Cyd and Gaylen Vagher of Holcomb, Di and Kenny Wilcox of Aurora, Colo., De and Doug Horinek of Long Lane, Mo.; 12 grandchildren; and three great-grandchil- later.
