

Cub Scouts have new cubmaster

Tonya Sager became the new cubmaster Cub Scout Pack 140 Monday night. Former Cubmaster Jim Oesterreich presented Sager with the responsibilities of a cubmaster, along with a cardboard belt representing the tools of her new calling: responsibility, knowledge, hard work, enthusiasm, gratification admiration and opportunity. He told Sager the cubs will follow the Cubmaster who serves at the Akela (leader) for the pack.

Sager served as Tiger Cub Coach last year.

The presentation was made at a potluck at Fike Park. Deanna Oesterreich presented the World Conservation Award patch to the cubs present. The patch was earned by planting trees at the airport.

The next pack meeting will be Tuesday, Aug. 28, at 7 p.m. at Fike Park to watch and possibly take part in a demonstration by the Thomas County EMS. Any boy who is interested in scouting is invited to attend.
