Troop 141

Jeff Paulsen is the new Scoutmaster for Boy Scout Troop 141. The troop has been meeting all summer, and is getting ready for some fall activities and campouts. The scouts meet the first and third Tuesday at the Scout Hut at 6:30 p.m. The troop is sponsored by Rotary

Peaceful Valley in Colorado for a week

Boy Scouts have returned from Wednesday night, and swam in the lake because the swimming pool had a hole in it. Other than that, they said they had a wonderful time.

Boy Scouts attend summer camp in Colorado

Paulsen and Assistant Scoutmasters Gerald Griggs and Tom Benson, accompanied the boys to camp.

The troop went for campout at Scott Lake about three weeks ago. They also went to Denver to watch a Colorado Rapids Soccer game, and camped out on the playing field that night with a bunch of Colorado Scouts at Mile High

Troop 140

Randy Smith is scoutmaster for Troop 140 which is sponsored by the Lions Club. They got back at the end of July from a week of summer camp at Camp Alexander in the mountains west of Colorado Springs, Colo. They report it was a great camp with a mountain lake, a swimming pool and mountain biking. Several of the scouts tried The troop attended summer camp at out mountain climbing and rappelling. The Scouts received a Conservation in early June. They worked on merit Award for helping build steps on a badges, had three inches of snow on steep trail near the camp lake. Smith, assistant scoutmasters Ken Erickson and Joe Friesen, and parents Rick Haskin and Gerry Fulwider accompanied the 15 scouts.

Josh Cox went to Philmont at the same time. He was in a troop put together from the Phillipsburg area that had 21 scouts. They hiked about 84 miles and did backpacking, got to see a lot of the area on the Philmont Ranch. He is the son of Dee and John Olson.

The troop will start meeting when school starts. They are meeting every Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Scout Hut. They will start working on the nature merit badge in September, and hope to qualify in CPR. The scouts will help the Gem Lions Club with their hog roast the day school starts.

Theo Kleinsorge is finishing his eagle project. He is working at the museum and building some podiums to renew barn exhibits. Several other scouts are Life Scouts, and need to choose their Eagle projects. If anyone has ideas for Eagle projects, please contact the scout leader.

Quilters have chance to look at exhibits

Theresia Aschenbrenner will be having a showing of a collection of her quilts at the Brewster United Methodist Church at 1 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 25. The United Methodist Women are hosting this event, and make sure to take time to stop and see the beautiful workmanship this lady has done.

On Aug. 18, there was a special program at the Sherman Theater in Goodland on quilts presented by a lady from McCook, Neb. For information, call Joan Reid at 899-7301. Anyone who wants to enjoy quilting should have ample opportunity to observe some great handiwork.

Just got word that Mickey Tygart is not doing too well, and although she is not exactly aware of her surroundings, I am certain Ross would appreciate any words of encouragement that old friends might have for them. Ross can be reached by writing to him in care of his daughter, Jan Davis, 5637 Bryson Dr., Orlando, Fla. 31818. Jan's e-mail is Janet
