KANSAS PRAIRIE QUILTERS QUILD

The July meeting of the Kansas Prairie Quilters Quild was called to order by President Rita Erickson. Monthly meetings are held the third Monday of the month at Farmers and Merchants Bank in Colby. We have 40 charter members in the Guild. Karen Parks gave treasurers report.

Quilt tips and favorite quilting tools were the discussion of the meeting. Karen Parks was the winner of the quilt that was given away by the Quild. Verna Baird donated the quilt. This money will be used to bring speakers (local & national) to speak at guild meetings and other special events.

Suzanne Schielke had suggested that we bring one-take-one item. Members can bring something that they would like to get rid of (for example) quilt books, patters, fat quarters and exchange it for something else that another member had brought in to be exchanged. Several members shared their quilting projects with the group. Members are encouraged to bring projects to share with the group each month.

Next month Dee Dorsch will teach hand quilting.

The August meeting of the Kansas Prairie Quilters Quild was called to order by President Rita Erickson.

Jackie Robinson will not be available this fall but could be scheduled for March 1 or 2, 2002. The club would need to pay all expenses for Jackie.

Quilt show committee reported a variety of locations and costs for possible show to be held Nov. 10, in conjunction with opening of hunting season and the Colby Craft fair.

Patricia Knorchel program will be Sept. 8, at 10 am. She will share the latest Quilt in a Day books. Sign-up sheets for refreshments were passed around. Members are to take advertising to their "home towns" for posting.

A full committee meeting for all committees will be held Sept. 8 after the regular monthly meeting.

Christine Icke challenged all charter members to create a 12 inch block and bring it to the January meeting. Christine will put the quilt together for the guild to keep.

Dee Dorsch from Bird City demonstrated hand quilting. Judy shared interesting quilt finger protectors. Quilt members had a "Show & Tell" of their quilt projects.

HIGH PLAINS LIONS

The High Plains Lions met Aug. 27 for their last meeting of the summer. They had a full agenda to discuss concerning up-coming events. Lions Larry and Sheryl Brenn were visiting Lions. Lion Lacey Moore's guests were Cassie Juenemann and William Higerd.

President Lion Larry Koon called the meeting to order by asking for a report of the Aug. 19 Board meeting. Items discussed were as follows. The club voted to pay for the charter for the new Venture Scout Troop. Lion Bob Urbom will be the club representative.

The club voted to purchase a wall plaque, continuing the recognition of officers into the next 25 years. The club voted to celebrate its 25th anniversary with a steak dinner on Sept. 24. The Sept. 10 meeting plans will be finalized. The club voted to sponsor two band members for the 2002 Kansas Lions band.

Terrie Oard was inducted into the club. Lion Darrell Follis was recognized as Lion of the Month. He received the award and recognition for his outstanding volunteerism to the community. The date for Colby Candy Day will be Sept. 21 at Dennen Field. Sept. 6 will be the zone meeting at the Ramada Inn at 6:30. The Christmas Party for the club will be Dec. 10 at 7 p.m. at the Ramada Inn

Lion Lacey Moore introduced her program, William Higard. William was sponsored by the club to the Kansas and International Band. William said he was very appreciative of the opportunity to represent Colby. He showed a video of the Kansas Band and the International Band and had a photo album for the club to view. William said he had many good experiences in both bands, "but the best experience is the new friends you make." The next meeting will be Sept. 10.

About Town

Guest speaker at the Senior Progress Center on Friday, Aug. 24, was Michael Boyles, CEO of Citizens Medical Center. Boyles made presentation on rural healthcare, rural hospitals, how Medicare and insurance companies interact with our healthcare, and what is new in our local healthcare system.

Over 100 people enjoyed the morning worship service held in Fike Park on Sunday, Aug. 26, and the potluck dinner following the service. Taking part in the service were the Rev. Franklin Schroeder of First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Bruce Burfield of First Baptist Church and the Rev. Reed Hartford of First Christian/Disciples of Christ Church. Special music was presented by Wayne and Millie Lauritsen and "Under Construction," a Tumbleweed Chorus quartet featuring Mike Linden, Bruce Burfield, Don Keady and Jeff Tilden. Children ran barefoot in the grass... songs of praise were sung by the combined congregations... prayers were lifted up... and there was plenty of food!

Ed and Pam Gerstner came to Colby from Wichita. She is administrative director of the Colby Community College Endowment Association. He is the grain manager for Grain Management, Inc. They are members of the Methodist Church. Family interests include tennis, biking, softball, and K-State football.

Recent visitors of Ruth Boeka were her daughter Judy Meade of Coal Creek, Colo., and Krista Venditti of Florence, Colo. Krista is Ruth's great-granddaughter.
