DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA
Immaculate Heart of Mary Circle met Sept. 6 in the Knights of Columbus room. Regent Darline Hutfles called the meeting to order.

The opening prayer was said in unison. The ode was sung and the pledge to the flag was made. Theresa Baker, chancellor, read a spiritual message about the different meanings of 'Home.'

A card was read from St. Paul's Circle, Grinnell, inviting the circle to participate in installation of officers at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 21, with a reception to follow.

Gail Bremenkamp offered to do research on the Daughter of Isabella Circle's history and will present it at the October meeting.

Joan Albers received tickets for a raffle to raise money for the Mary Elizabeth House in Hays. The circle will donate $50 to them.

The October meeting will be an open meeting with a gourmet meal. Marla Crumrine, chairman, CeAnn Rinehart, Jan Mallory and Darline Hutfles are hostesses.

Guests are invited to the meal and the open meeting. To assure an accurate meal count, please call or leave a message with Margaret Denneker, 462-6116.

Rosemary Bange, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the slate of officers for 2001-2002. They are: regent, Rosemary Bange; vice-regent, Gayle Bremenkamp; past regent, Darline Hutfles; financial secretary, Susan Veeh; recording secretary, Margaret Denneker; treasurer, Nancy Barlow; custodian, Dorothy Stephens; chancellor, CeAnn Rinehart; trustees - first year, Theresa Baker, 2nd year, Louise Dougherty, third year, Joan Albers. Slate was approved.

The obligation was read as a group. The meeting closed with prayer and ode. Bo Curtin and Loretta Woodall served refreshments.

BREWSTER LIONS

Song Leader Pro Tem Rex Jamison led in a verse of Jingle Bells at the Aug. 28 meeting. It was voted to donate a half a case of Lions lifesavers to some senior scouts for their gold Award project.

Coach B.J. Baird spoke about this year's football team. Lions enjoyed home made ice cream.

The Sept. 11 meeting starts at 7 p.m. Wednesday. Bring your wife. And invite your assigned faculty member and spouse. You need to call your teacher and get a definite yes or no so we can get a head count by Sunday night. If you cannot be present and your assigned teacher will be, contact Nate Reid or another Lion so that the guest will be introduced and attended to. Lion Don Allen has enlisted our new superintendent, Sherri Ebmundson, for the program.

Open house scheduled at Senior Center

The Senior Center will have an open house on Friday, Oct. 12, from 2-4 p.m. to coincide with Homecoming. Be sure to mark your calendars and stop in and say "Hi" to friends. Everyone is welcome, regardless of age.

Friday should be a great night for a football game. It's cool and crisp, and the coffee stand should be popular. Had a few folks mention that there were some spectators that didn't show very good sportsmanship. Surely, Brewster is going to retain their reputation for being polite and fair, that is something to be proud of.

Wilma Burk and Beverly Frailey spent Thursday until Tuesday in McCook and York, Neb., and also attended the 60th anniversary of Wilma's cousin in Aurora, Neb., on Sunday.

Marjorie Westover has returned home and her granddaughter, Tanya Emory, has accompanied her. She is doing good, other than a cold she picked up in Colorado. I'll bet she will be back to her regular routine, soon.

Rene Faber was flown to Denver on Wednesday evening with what was believed to be a heart attack. We certainly wish her the best, an quickest recovery. The reports are all sounding really good, and it will be good to have her recuperating back home.

Mickey Tygart has rallied a little, and is able to be in her wheelchair and take a few meals. Jan says Ross would appreciate hearing from friends, so if you have a minute or two, drop him a line. We have his address here, in case you don't have it.

Guests of Rod and Susan Brauson and Barbara Gilley were Nick Heoner of Fort Hays State University, grandparents, Virginia Smiley, Carmelita and Lyle Clark of Goodland. The occasion was Barbara's birthday. After a wonderful supper, birthday cake and opening gifts there was the traditional fireworks display.

Cynthia Strad was in a week or so ago, and said she was moving to Goodland. We wish her the very best, and hope she'll stop by occasionally.

80th anniversary celebration was a success

The 80th anniversary of the Rexford Community Church was a great success. The theme for the weekend was To God Be the Glory and the song was sung during the services. People began arriving on Saturday morning to visit with friends. Over 100 attended the banquet Saturday evening at the Shepherd's Staff Center.

After the delicious dinner a few announcements were made and Happy Birthday was sung to Deb Stepper, Barb Stettler and Lula Thieler. The group adjourned to the church for the program. A tape taken when this building was built in 1953 and 1954 was shown and many of the helpers were identified. One chief carpenter was hired and the rest of the labor was donated by local people.

Different people shared memories of earlier days including Stan Barnes, Jim Bartsch, Esther Goossen, Les Wait, Dale Mustoe and a few others. The pastor read some letters from some who could not attend. A quiz on Church history was won by Rex Carswell and he received a framed picture of the church. Sunday started with an 8 a.m. hearty breakfast served in Fellowship Hall then the sing-a-long started at 9:30. The singing was great.

After a short break, the morning service began at 10:30. During the service Janette Dible and Shawn Spreser sang a beautiful duet and Edith Adamson played a terrific piano solo. Some shared memories of their part in the church work and several teachers of the young people were fondly remembered. Some of those mentioned were Maye Hughes, Bertha Latimer, Deb Stepper and Frances McIntyre.

Stan Barnes, a former minister, delivered the morning message based on Matt. 16:18. An outstanding album of church history, prepared by Glendora Bastin with help from Delores Dible and Betty Nickols, was displayed with other pictures and memorabilia and drew much interest.

Those from out-of-town who attended were Beth and Becky Barnett, Les and Virginia Wait, Dale and Virginia Mustoe, Dave and Dalene Strieff, Larry and Marty Shank, Glen Shank,

About Town

Dennis and Sheila Woofter spent Labor Day weekend in Colby visiting his parents, Ethel Jean and Duane Woofer. They were traveling from San Diego Calif., to their new home in Washington, D.C.

Dr. Mason and Merle Wolf attended the wedding of Carol Balthazor to Glenn Hofman in rural Elwood, Neb., at the Hofman farm on Sept. 1. Carol is Merle's daughter. The outside wedding was held on a hilltop adjacent to the farm house. Children of the bride and groom were the attendants. A picnic luncheon for family and friends followed the wedding service.

Larry and Deb Koon attended the opening of the Kansas State Fair, this past weekend in Hutchinson.

Boston-based jazz singer Lisa Thorson will present a public concert at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 18 at Garden City Community College. The singer is the daughter of Steve Thorson, Garden City Community College theater arts director. Her concert in the Pauline Joyce Fine Arts Building is the centerpiece of a four-day visit in which she'll also present a series of workshops for Southwest Kansas high school and college musicians. Tickets for the Sept. 18 concert will be $5, on a first-come, first-served basis. Admission will be sold at the door, and also in advance, beginning Sept. 11. Call the box office at 275-3244, between 11 a.m.-1 p.m. and 4-6 p.m., Monday through Friday. Garden City Community College students, and those from area high schools, will be able to work with the singer in a series of sessions Sept. 17-20. Anyone with questions about the student sessions should contact Dr. Lee Martin, college vocal music director, 620-276-9547. Those with questions about the concert may contact Steve Thorson at 620-276-9548.

Thaw salmon, if frozen. Place on flat cutting surface and halve steaks lengthwise, removing center bones. Place the four pieces of salmon in a 10 x 6 x 2-inch baking dish. Bake uncovered in a 450 degree oven for 12 to 15 minutes, or until fish flakes easily with a fork. In small bowl, combine sour cream, mayonnaise, green onion, lemon juice and salt and pepper. Spoon over salmon; sprinkle cheese on top. Bake 3-5 minutes longer or until sauce is heated through. Makes four servings.
