Playing in the water

MAXINE NELSON/Colby Free Press

Glovine Golemboski dabbles in the water at the fountain at Pioneer Memorial Library. The fountain was donated by Dave Ferguson when the original building was built in 1963 to house the Thomas County Historical Society and the library. When the library building was recently enlarged, the front area and the fountain remained the same. The water in the fountain runs during warm weather, but is turned off during freezing weather. The water is also turned off at night, because it has been soaped so often and the soap damages the pump, according to JoAnne Sunderman, library director. "We have to do that because it costs so much to drain and clean the fountain," she said.

The hospital's work is supported through funds raised by the American Lebanese Syrian Associated Charities. St. Jude patients are treated regardless of their ability to pay. The charity covers all costs of treatment beyond those reimbursed by third party insurers, and total costs for families who have no insurance. For more information, visit www.stjude.org.

ter, but it sounds like she was a very sick lady for a few days.

Nearly 65 people enjoyed Thesia Aschenbrenner's quilt display at the Brewster United Methodist Church. There were 40 quilts, either pieced or completed, that she has made. All of her family members and many friends of Thesia's also have quilts, that were not display, so this lady has really been busy for many years. Others showing quilts were Olive Thiel, Joyce Crabtree, Barbara Springsteen, Colleen Rall and Bonnie Reid. Some of these quilts were also made by Thesia. Ladies from Winona, Colby, Goodland and Levant all enjoyed coming over and seeing the talent and creativity that went into the making of these quilts.

Brewster School carnival planned by class

The annual Brewster School Carnival will take place on the evening of Sept. 29. Old-fashioned fun and excitement has been planned by the Class of 2003, sponsors for this year's event, said Marla Crumrine, advertising chairman. The festivities will begin at 5 p.m. and run until 8 p.m. at the school. Many games will be played to be enjoyed by all age groups, including everyone's favorites, a cake walk and Bingo. Once again, many generous businesses and individuals have donated some great items for the silent auction, as well as items to be given away as prizes at the many game booths.

This has been a week like no other, and I hope we never witness a worse one. Every life, in our country has been touched in one way or another. Some in ways that we could not fathom, sadly, America has been assaulted in a way that none of us thought possible. But, watching the reports, America is uniting like none of our enemies thought possible. Prayer is the number 1 activity of all of us, and it will 'availeth much!'

We thank Carolyn Richards for supplying the patriotic ribbon for us to wear in support of America. Carolyn has always been at the forefront of providing a tangible way to show what we support, whether it be a sports team or a country. It's been a long time since I've had a 'Good Neighbor' Award in this column, but I think Carolyn and all those that help her at the Craft Peddler fill the criteria, so "Here's to you, ladies!"

Pam Bremerkamp wants everyone interested to know that Mom's In Touch is meeting again at the Brewster Church, each Wednesday at 1 p.m. The purpose of this group is to pray for our children especially those of school age., to help keep them from harm or from temptation to do wrong things. If anyone is interested in evening meetings, please contact Pam. I do believe that dads would be welcome to these meetings, too.

One of the good news reports, this week, is Zelma Kinkade is home from the hospital, and we are happy that the reports are that she is doing much better.

Arnberger-Wimmer family had reunion

An Arnberger-Wimmer family reunion was held Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 1-2, at the home of Virginia and Bob Arnberger of Winona. Family who attended were: Dennis and Gloria Arnberger, Kevin and Shelly Arnberger, Curtis and Tori, all of Great Bend; Mrs. Jean (Wimmer) Eder and Joel of Marienthal; Darrel and Vickie Arnberger, David and Shirley Arnberger, Bruce and Brent, all of Colby; Bud and Peggy Arnberger, Pat and Tim Schippers, all of Oakley; Derek Moreland of Goodland; Leona and Glenn Repshire of Page City; Terrel and Randy Rohr of Wichita; and Kathy and Jim Koons of St. James, Mo.

The weekend was spent visiting, playing horseshoes, and a race was held between the men and women. The men had to put ladies' clothing on over their clothes, and the ladies had to put men's clothing on over their own! Fun and much laughter was shared. Plans were set for the next five years for the family reunions.

On Tuesday, Virginia Arnberger and Kathy Koons spent the day in Garden City shopping.

That evening, Kathy and Jim were supper guests of Virginia and Bob Arnberger. Jim and Kathy left on Thursday,
