Royal Neighbors attend convention in Oberlin

Seven members of the Royal Neighbors attended the annual Decatur County Convention in Oberlin on Saturday, Sept. 22. Those attending were Grace Cheney, Marge Leh, Betty Carswell, Deb Stepper, Zula Horinek Darlene Robben and Jean Hawkins. Other towns attending included Norcarat McCook, Neb., and Wilsonville, Neb. Betty Carswell and Darlene Robben each received one of the prizes given. Rexford will host the convention in 2002.

Lula Thieler accompanied JoAnn Miller, Jane Hudson and Carol Bell to Greeley, Colo., last Thursday afternoon to attend the funeral of her sister, Ella Sharrah who died Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 18, at the Bonell Good Samaritan Center in Greeley. She had been a resident there about three years. Graveside services were held at the Sunset Memorial Gardens in Greeley on Friday morning, Sept. 21, at 10:00. After the service of prayers and songs, we went to the home of Ella's son, Bill and Amy Sharrah for lunch and to visit with the family.

Returning home that afternoon we stopped in Denver to see Jay Daniel who had returned home from the hospital on Thursday. He has been having serious heart problems but was feeling better that day. We arrived back in Colby late that night where I stayed all night and returned home Saturday evening.

The Social Hour Club met with Ileene MacPhail at the Fairview Estates Community in Colby on Wednesday, Sept. 19, with nine members and one guest, Ferma Garrett present. Zula Horinek won the hostess gift. Deb Stepper will be the hostess on Oct. 5.

Jesse Colson, son of Ernest and Janine Colson, had an accident on his way to school where he is a sophomore at the Golden Plains High School last Friday, Sept. 21. He was driving a pickup and hit some loose dirt about a mile south of the Hawkeye Cemetery. The pickup was totaled and ended up in two pieces but Jesse had only some cuts and bruises. His left shoulder was badly bruised and he has his arm in a sling. He returned to school this week.

The High Plains Ks. After 5 Club will have the next dinner party "Home on the Range" at the Shepherd's Staff Conference Center in Rexford on Oct. 9 at 7 p.m. All women are invited.

The Ladies Missionary meeting was held in Fellowship Hall at the church Tuesday afternoon with Glendora Bastin as hostess. Diana Taylor read a heart-warming article referring to the recent tragedy in our country. Several letters from missionaries were read and prayers given for them. The next meeting will be a potluck meal at noon on Oct. 30, and each one is to bring an article or a poem to read. All guests are welcome.

Rexford PRIDE President Duane Cheney and Core Group member Peg Greenwood attended Kansas PRIDE Day in Great Bend on Sept. 22. There were approximately 150 representatives of PRIDE Cities from all parts of Kansas at the meeting. Rexford PRIDE won a Merit Award for the year 2000 Homecoming Parade which they sponsored. Duane and Peg attended information sessions designed to give them ideas to incorporate in the Rexford PRIDE Programs.

Newly elected members of the Upper Republican Basin Advisory Committee will learn more about their roles in development of the Kansas Water Plan and the plan itself at 9 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 11, at the City Building in Atwood. The introductory session will precede the group's regularly scheduled meeting at 10 a.m. The committee is one of 12 advisory committees in Kansas charged with providing ideas from a local perspective on water issues of local and statewide importance. Working through the Kansas Water Office, the ideas are considered for recommendation to the Kansas Water Authority for inclusion in the annually reviewed Kansas Water Plan. The 23 members of the Kansas Water Authority are a mix of citizens variously appointed by the Governor and the leaders of the Kansas Legislature.

Anyone interested in water resources in the basin is encouraged to attend. For more information, contact the Kansas Water Office web site www.kwo.org or Basin Planner Hank Ernst (hernst@kwo.state.ks.us or (785) 296-0877).

Judith L. McIntosh, Plainville, began duties as overnight house supervisor at the Mary Elizabeth Maternity Home in Hays Sept. 26. McIntosh will be working with unwed mothers in counseling, life skills and guidance in education and spiritual needs.

McIntosh holds a bachelor of arts in elementary education from the Mid-America Nazarene University and has taught school in Colorado, Missouri and Kansas. She holds a masters of science in counseling from Emporia State University. As overnight supervisor, McIntosh said she will be able to continue home-schooling her four children during the day.

"She will also be the person who will help calm the mother's fears during the night when a new baby arrives. Certainly God played a role in guiding her to our home," Donetta Robben, administrator of the Mary Elizabeth Home, said. McIntosh lives with her husband, Gene, who is pastor of the United Methodist Church in Plainville.

The general transportation van is available to anyone in Thomas County for trips to the doctor, to visit friends, to the meal sites, etc., from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday through Friday. For reservations call 462-2901 by 11 a.m. the previous business day if possible.
