Club News

Boy Scout Roundtable

Boy Scout popcorn sales got underway Thursday evening when order blanks and information were distributed at the October Roundtable. Prizes will be given to the scouts, based on the dollar amount of popcorn sold. White chocolate has been discontinued. Popcorn will be delivered Nov. 16.

District Commissioner Jon Felver of Goodland opened the Oct. 4 Roundtable with a discussion of flag etiquette and the flag salute.

He presented Richard Stramel of Troop 142 with a green knot award for leadership training. Mike Johnson of Rexford completed cubmaster training.

District Executive Ed Evans, Hays, said the service center in Salina has a new, free phone number, 866-950-7750. He made several other announcements.

The new council executive is Matt Devore. He and his wife Laura have three children, and came from the Twin Cities, Minneapolis and St. Paul.

There will be a leadership retreat Oct. 27 at Camp Hansen.

The Buffalo Bill District Baden Powell Dinner will be the first week of February in Goodland. Nominations for Award of Merit and Silver Beaver are requested. The forms were in the Program Preview packet.

Cub Scout Den Leader Training will be offered at 7 p.m. Nov. 20. The University of Scouting will be Nov. 3 at Kansas Wesleyan University in Salina.

CWF Mary Group

Christian Women's Fellowship Mary group of First Christian Church, met on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 4. Betty Bartlett hosted the meeting at her rural home.

General president Pat Hartford, reviewed the agenda for the two CWF groups for the coming month. Ruth Boeka presented the Study Session: Naming the Gifts of the Spirit, taken from I Corinthians 12:4-8 and Isaiah 11:1-3. There were 10 members present. The Nov. 1 meeting will be hosted by Bobbie Heaton.

Brewster Lions

Ten members and one guest attending last meeting in September. Harvest and wheat planting had everyone busy. Tailtwister pro tem Rex Jamison gladly fined the tardy tailtwister Al Rall.

Lion Phil Knox failed to answer a simple bulletin question. Lion Lyman Goetsch stumbled through the reading of three meetings' minutes. He blamed Mike's Baughn's writing.

Mark Gaudy gave a good program on eye, ear and lung safety. A free will donation is being collected by LCIF and being sent to a Lions Club in the New York disaster area for distribution. The New York club will determine where best to spend the money and 100 percent will be used for disaster relief. What other group can promise that? Bring your donations to the next meeting or give them to Mike or Nate Reid.

Lions Ray Crumbaker, Darral Craft, and John Faber are in charge of the program for the Oct. 11 meeting. It will be about substance abuse.

Transition Council

Northwest Kansas Transition Council met Sept. 20 at the Ramada Inn. Those present were: George Victor, Judy Taylor, Jane Rogers, Cheryl Solberg, Kathy Kersenbrock-Ostmeyer, Scott Carver, Jennifer Unger, Kathleen Cataldo, Janet Worthy, Terry Applehaus, Charlene Rietcheck, Marilyn Unger Janet Worthy, Regional Prevention Center, updated those present on community awareness and Drug Free School Coordination (SADD). Scott Carver, ILS, LINK, reported

Baby born in Spain has local grandparents

Max and Chay Cimino of Ibiza, Spain, are celebrating the birth of their son, Luce Masimiliano, born on Sept. 19.

Happy grandparents are Nicolino and Giusipina Cimino of Rome, Italy, Pat and Terrie O'Brien of Covina, Calif., and Wayne and Suzanne Johnson of Seattle, Wash. Luca is the great-grandson of Ray and Jackie Johnson of Rexford and the great-great-grandson of Beth Thayer, also of Rexford.

Lula Thieler

• Rexford Correspondent

Marge Leh hosted the Royal Neighbors Thursday afternoon at the Community Hall with seven present. Plans were discussed for Make a Difference Day which is October. Betty Carswell will be the next hostess.

A farewell dinner for the Vic Goeken family was held at the Rexford Community Church Sunday after the morning service.

The Goekens are moving to Missouri and they will be missed here but we wish them the best in their new home.

On Sunday, Sept. 30, the Red Barn Band spent an enjoyable evening at the Fairview Estates Retirement Community in Colby. A lovely dinner was served to everyone and then the Band presented a program of music, singing, dancing, using their many puppets and gadgets. The residents were attentive and some took pictures of the band.

On Friday, Sept. 28, Lula Thieler and Betty Carswell attended a dinner at the Landmark Inn in Oberlin sponsored by the Oberlin Herald for the correspondents. Each introduced herself and received a nice gift. Many thanks to the Haynes for the lovely day.

Grace Cheney went with Gary and Kay Cheney to the First Christian Church in St. Francis last Sunday to see her great granddaughter, Amanda Kay Cheney be christened. Amanda Kay is the 2-months-old daughter of Matt and Lyn Cheney.

Deb Stepper hosted the Social Hour Club at the Barn Wednesday afternoon with all members present. The table was colorfully decorated for Halloween with little pumpkins filled with candy at each place. Some games of bingo were played and Hulda Wark won the hostess gift. A variety of foods and coffee were served for refreshments. Eileen Dible will be the next hostess on Oct. 17 in Colby.

Two Dates to Remember: The Pride meeting at the Community Hall on Monday evening, Oct. 15, at 6:30. Important decisions to be made. Also remember the 'Christmas in October' sale at the Red Barn beginning at 10 a.m. There will be lots of gifts for sale so come early, have coffee or apple cider and some cookies.

Dean and Marita McKay of Denver stopped by to see their aunt Lula Thieler and have dinner with her on Monday. They were returning from a trip of four weeks to the northern and eastern states.

Around 30 attended the Pride meeting at the Community Center Thursday evening.

Information packets and application sheets were given to everyone about the Rehabilitation program. They hope to get started soon on the project.
