

Area residents announce birth of babies; Eagles Auxiliary hosts state president

James and Cassandra Ballentine, Wallace, announce the arrival of a baby girl on Sept. 27, 2001. She is Emilee Dawn and weighed in at 7 lbs., 5 oz., and was 19 inches long. Grandparents are Harvey and Lori Hemkin, Winona, and Emerson and Virginia Ballentine, Wallace.

Brandon and Tenille Lee, Monument, announce the birth of Isaiah Paul on Sept. 26, 2001. He weighed 7 lbs., 4ozs. Sister Journey welcomes him. Grandparents are George and Judy Collins and Betty Lee, all of Page City.

Marge Ausmus and the Oakley Eagles Auxiliary entertained the Kansas Madam State President Linda Flinner, and State Historian Sally Smith of Topeka Oct. 3, at the Oakley Lodge. They all enjoyed a potluck supper. Also present were Carolyn Kaiser and Mary Lou Geotz, WaKeeney Auxiliary. The ritual and meeting followed. The Oakley Auxiliary presented the state president with a corsage, gift, and money to use for her charity which is cancer.

Michele Werth, Wyatt and Layton of Brewster spent Friday night with Roger and Marge Ausmus. The boys also spent Monday with Grandma as they had a day off from school.

day afternoon. Richard Ausmus is helping Gary and Marilyn Ochs with their harvest. The ladies visited Joyce and Daylene Bartell, also.

Genealogy group to meet Sunday About Town

The Family History Genealogy Group will meet 3:30-5 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 21, at Pioneer Memorial Library. Interested persons are invited to attend, and bring questions for sharing. Internet access and help will be available from 4-5 p.m.

Pioneer Memorial Library will be having a "Spook-tacular" used book sale on two Saturdays in October, Oct. 20 and Oct. 27. The hours are 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. both days. All proceeds from the sale will go to help the Library purchase new books and provide programs for all ages. Pioneer Memorial Library is located at 375 West 4th Street. For more information, please contact the Library at 462-4470.

Houseguests of Joyce, Daylene and Kyle Bartell are Don and Crystal Tholen and Micheala of Baker, Ore. Bill Sroufe and two college friends from McPherson joined them for the weekend. Joining them for Sunday dinner were Don Chews of Brighton, Colo., and Glen Kemp. Arriving on Wednesday to visit their relatives were Virgil and Myrna Bartell, Salina, and Mike Bartell of Hays.

On Friday, Oct. 5, Eric Gfeller celebrated his 4th birthday on Friday, Oct. 5, with his family, the Dennis Gfellers and the John Johnson family of Sharon Springs. They had come for the homecoming activities and to watch Eric with the crowning ceremony. On Saturday, Judy Gfeller hosted a spaghetti dinner with ice cream and cake to celebrate Eric's 4th birthday. Guests present were Dennis and Jana Gfeller and children, Kent and Cindy Gfeller and children. Davis was busy with the harvest.

The Winona Chamber of Commerce is busy making plans for their annual ham and bean dinner which will be on Nov. 109. The quilting ladies are working on Tuesdays and Thursday afternoons. Becky of the Logan County Health Department will be at the Methodist Church on Oct. 16 to do blood pressures and give flu shots. The homecoming activities of Oct. 5 were well attended. There were games by classes, a dinner by the Chamber of Commerce, pep rally, football game, and crowning of king and queen.

Visit with grandchildren great

Roger and I had a great time in Hays from Sunday afternoon until Monday evening. It seems we don't get to spend much time with grandkids (or kids) at least, not as much as we would like. But we did get to see four of the 12 this trip. Nathaniel and Corinne, ages 10 and 7 days away from being 7, respectively, are growing in grace and politeness. This year is different for them as their mother, Beth, has returned to college herself. The kids are more helpful and doing good in school, and Nathaniel threw two touchdown passes in the flag football game he played in Sunday afternoon. On Monday, Barry, Kim and Rebekah and Andrew came to Hays so we got even more visiting done. Rebekah is 4 1/2 now, and she wrote me a very neat note, and Andrew is a happy, active and always hungry little boy. He went to Kansas City on Tuesday, so we're hoping he got a good report from the doctors there. Kim says that even after all the testing he's had, he still doesn't mind doctors.

Kay Norton, longtime Brewster resident, died Tuesday, Oct. 9, in Goodland. Services were Saturday at the Methodist church. Burial was in the Goodland Cemetery. Our sympathy goes to Harold and other family members. Kay and Harold were honored in August for all the work they have done for the city, and she was very happy and proud that night.

Next week is going to be a busy week. It actually starts Friday here at the Senior Center, when we are planning on having an open house for homecoming. On Monday, there will be a presentation for EMS, and a salad supper, all hosted by GFWC Beta Club, then on Tuesday, Oct. 16, Thomas County Health Department will be here to give us flu shots, from 10-11:30 a.m.

Inace Parker's family planned a surprise birthday party for Inace's 94th birthday at 3 p.m. Monday at the Senior Center. I will write more about it next week.

Don Hawkins traveled to Hays on Tuesday for a doctor's appointment.

In Loving Memory of JOHNNY SULZMAN who left us five years ago on October 17th

Five years have passed since that sad day when God came and took you away.

They say time heals all sorrows and helps us to forget, but time has only proven how much we miss you yet.

God gave us the strength to face it and the courage to bear the blow. For what it meant to us to lose you, no one will ever know.

Our hearts still ache with loneliness, our eyes shed many tears. Only God knows how much we love and miss you at the end of our 5 years.

Still sadly missed by your wife, Etta Wayne, Deanna & family, Kelvin, Vicky and family, Rhonda & Adam, Loran and Randy
