Rotary

President Staats recognized visiting Rotarians Darren Miller, SW Bell area rep, and Dave McIntosh of Gulfport/Biloxi, Miss., at the Nov. 13 meeting. Guests were Tim Moeder with Curt Stephens, Kris Cameron with Carolyn Armstrong, and Bruce Frahm with Helen Frahm. Secretary Winger reported improving attendance in recent weeks.

Ken Frahm advised of Wednesday's Colby visit by fellow Rotarian Carla Stovall, announcing her candidacy for governor of Kansas. Nancy LePell reminded members of the upcoming Big Brothers/Sisters pancake feed. President Staats congratulated Larry Berg on becoming president of Kansas Economic Development Alliance, and displayed sample shirts to be imprinted with the Rotary logo.

Darryl Henry presented his program. Becky Donelan, the recently-named executive director of Thomas County Foundation. This is a new group that got its start through Kansas Health Foundation, an outgrowth of the sale of United Methodist Church's Wesley Medical Center. Kansas Health Foundation invited Thomas and 16 other counties to participate in a leadership initiative some years ago. This led to the training of Leilani Thomas and Cindy Black, and establishment of the Leadership Thomas County program. The long term commitment of Kansas Health Foundation to Thomas County through this program is $100,000, half of which is being spent on leadership training and half for youth activities. The usage of those funds is controlled locally by Leadership Thomas County, with consultation and networking facilitation provided by the foundation.

The foundation wants to offer more to the 17 participating communities, and announced a matching fund drive opportunity. The non-profit Thomas County Foundation was established in response to the challenge, and opted to go for the $300,000 level program. If that amount is raised by or pledged to the county foundation by year's end, the Kansas Health Foundation will match it. Thomas County Foundation would offer grants to county non-profit entities in a locally-controlled manner.

With just one and a half months remaining, the fund drive is not yet to the halfway mark and the Thomas County Foundation is actively soliciting business and individual donations, which are tax-deductible.

Ten members met at the home of Deanna Sulzman as the Preceptor degree was bestowed upon Colleen Dougherty, Kathy Ryan and Judy Taylor. Rushing was discussed as were service projects. It was reported a record number of apple pies were made on Oct. 27.

The next meeting will be a social at the Comfort Inn on Nov. 18 to start at 7 p.m. This will be a couples Bunko party. Everyone is being asked to bring finger foods. The next regular meeting with a program will be held on the first Monday in December at the home of Kathy Ryan.

Colby Country Club

Bridge winners Nov. 13 were: Mary Molstad, 1st; Marge Roulier, 2nd; Mary Sonnenfield, 3rd; and Joy Davis, 4th.

Solomon Valley 4-H

Justin Sloan called the meeting to order on Nov. 12. Roll call was "what are you thankful for," and was answered by 16 members. Last month's minutes were read and approved.

The American Flag pledge was led by Jackie Splattstoesser, and the 4-H pledge was led by Quinnlyn Woofler. The song O Beautiful was led by Sally Wilson.

Kelley Splattstoesser did a project talk on "How to draw buildings." Tiffany Wilson did a demonstration on "How to make Turkey Napkins."

We had five new members added to the Solomon Valley 4-H club: Leah Raymo, Brady, Bethany, and Bailey Rafter, and Connor Wilson. Recreation was led by Brenda Wilson, and the host were the Goossens and Splattstoessers. Next meeting will be Dec. 10, at 7:00 at the 4-H building.

High Plains Lions

President Lion Larry Koon opened the November meeting by announcing his group of hunters had got 40 pheasants over the week-end. Several members suggested the president be fined for not telling the truth. Several others were questioning the legal limit a Lion may have in their possession. Other members thought the president should share his bounty.

Lion Melda Moore led the Flag Salute followed by a patriotic prayer by Lion Matt Hamill. Visiting Lion from the Gem club was introduced. Mike Thompson of Colby College was introduced as a visitor. The program chairman Lion Elmer Lawver introduced his program Mark Wahlmeier.

Dr. Wahlmeier reminded the club that November is National Diabetes Month. He reported that there are 14 million American diabetics and 40 percent of them have diabetic retinopathy. This is the major cause of blindness in America. Everyone with diabetes is at risk for this eye disease. There are no symptoms and it can only be detected by a trained person. The disease progression can be slowed by laser treatment if it is detected in the early stages. Everyone is urged to have at least an annual eye check-up.

President Lion Koon announced the monthly board meeting would be Nov. 19 at 7 p.m. in the Bedker building. Other reminders were the Hays Convention March 16-17. The mid-winter rally in Salina will be Jan. 4-6.

Lion Virgil Jones reported on the upcoming pancake feed Dec. 1. Lion Bob Urbom reported that Boy Scout Troop 140 would help serve. Pre-sale tickets were given out and each member is suppose to sell at least 20.

Lion Virgil Jones was given a certificate and a state pin for the Lion Volunteer of the month.

Lion Terri Oard gave a report on the planned Christmas party Dec. 3. The Gem, Brewster, Rexford, and Atwood clubs have been invited to join the party.

After the buffet dinner, in observance of Veterans Day, Lion Virgil Jones offered pie alamide to all veterans. Lion Koon asked each veteran to speak about their military experience.

Lion Matt Hamill served 1944-46 in the Navy. He was assigned with seven other seamen to a radar division to protect the East Coast. He was 30 years old, married, two children. "The worst experience of the ordeal was saying good-bye to my family."

Lion Bob Urbom was inducted into the Army Dec. 7, 1941. He was a "90 Day Wonder." He was one of seven out of his outfit to be chosen for OCS school. He was assigned second lieutenant to a tank division in the Mohave desert. When the 1st lieutenant was shot he was made captain of the tank company. They got surrounded by Germans, and a sniper shot him in the side. When he got out of a hospital in Paris he was sent to England and was in charge of a German prison stockade. While he was in England he met his wife Natalie in an officers club in 1945. They were married in England.

Lion Stan Davis served in the Korea War. He went in January 1951 and served in the 7th infantry tank 73rd division. He served his two years in Korea and was discharged in 1953.

Lion Darrel Follis served in the Army. He went to Korea in Dec. 1950. He was in Korea in the winter and he said, he "decided he would never like winter again." He got caught in a sniper fire but escaped, "The Lord was with me and I was glad to have served my country and get back home."

Lion Elmer Lawver joined the Navy while he was in high school. His brother had been killed in Italy and he wanted to go kill some Nazis. He joined the Navy because he wanted to have a place to sleep. He served on board of the USS Antietam, an air craft carrier. He sailed to Australia, China, Philippines, and Japan. When he got discharged he joined the Reserves and was called back into service in 1951 for the Korean War.

The next regular club meeting will be Nov. 26.
