Kids helping kids

SHARON MUNK/Colby Free Press

Woman leaves to help in New York

By LULA THEILER
Rexford correspondent
Visiting Kathi Hapke for a few days at Thanksgiving were her daughter and granddaughter Janna and Kirsten Dutton. Right after Thanksgiving Kathi left for the east coast where she will join the cleanup efforts taking place as the result of the bombing of the New York Twin Towers. Kathi will work with groups providing health care for the cleanup and recovery crews. The first American Legion pinocle tournament of the fall and winter season was held at the Rexford Legion on Nov. 17. Nine partners competed for the cash prizes. First prize winners were Lawrence and Zula Horinek, second place went to Rick Shaw and Mark Basgall, and third was won by Rex and Betty Carswell. The next tournament is scheduled for Dec. 17.

Dr. Mikel Ary, CCC President, thanks Jon Eicher, First National Vice-President, for their donation of a large painting by Ken Mitchell. The art work was commissioned in 1975 by a local bank and has been on display in the lobby of the Commercial Federal Bank building on Franklin Avenue. First National Bank purchased the bank's assets earlier this year and donated the painting to the college. It is on display in the Frahm Theater located in the Cultural Arts Center. Mitchell was an instructor at the college for 20 years. He has painted several murals across the United States including one completed this summer in the Bedker Memorial Complex.

Great-granddaughter is doing well

The first thing I want to do this week, is apologize to Ruth and Duane Jones for getting the name of their new great granddaughter. The little miss is named Alexandria Rose Blank, which is a very pretty name, and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Blank, and granddaughter of Mike and Monna Rose Blank, all of Elgin, Texas. I am very sorry for the error, and really don't know where the name Alexandria Danielle came from. But, we are happy that she is doing well, and I am sure her sister, April, is helping take good care of her, by now.

Sally Michael
Brewster Correspondent

There has been lots of traveling between Brewster and Hays, lately, as several folks are seeing doctors in the Hays Medical Center. Coleen Crumrine has been having some tests done, there, as well as LaVelle Michael. Don Hawkins had an appointment there, last week, also. And I know many others have seen doctors, in other areas, too. Roger and I both went to the clinic, in Colby, with symptoms of colds. Roger had his for a few days, and I just started having a little congestion, but wanted to make sure it didn't get worse. We had big plans for the weekend, and don't want anything to slow down the time with kids and grandkids. I imagine there were several families planning on having some quality time and good eats, during the week, and we hope each of you just had the most blessed Thanksgiving ever. There is much to be thankful for and many that need to be remembered in prayer, because their families may not be able to join together, on earth, again. Our sympathy is sent to Olive Thiel, on the loss of her sister, Margaret Burk, on Nov. 20. And George and Roberta Luckert will be heading for Texas, soon, due to the death of George's sister-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Luckert. Also, Inace Parker's daughter-in-law, Sandi Parker and Merle, are remembered at this time, with the death of Sandi's father.

Bob Schroeder is a patient in Denver, and we hope he is feeling better. Christine Weed reports that Kenny is feeling good again, and that was good to hear.

deer than pheasants, this year. But, while the men were trekking through the fields the ladies were checking out the latest craft items and pretty surprises at Carolyn's Craft Peddler. It's hard to believe how many things can be made out of ribbon, beads, wheat, clay, and all other sorts of supplies that line the shelves, baskets, displays, and hooks in this shop. And there is an abundance of patriotic items that will let all know how we feel about our country. Oh, yes, did I mention that it smells really nice, too? There is a hint of spice, spring and flowers all blending pleasantly throughout the store, plus more colors than one would believe possible. But, don't take my word for it, stop and see for yourself. It'll make you feel like Christmas is coming!

Oh, yes, Mr. Theimer, I agree 100 percent with your letter in the Free Press, on Tuesday - kudos to you (whatever that means).
