Jayhawks pick new coach

LAWRENCE, (AP)—Oklahoma assistant Mark Mangino, three days after withdrawing from consideration, was named head football coach Tuesday at Kansas.

Mangino, 45, said he will begin his new job immediately and not go to the Cotton Bowl with Oklahoma, where he has been offensive coordinator the past two years. Before that, he spent eight years at Kansas State with Bill Snyder.

Oklahoma coach Bob Stoops, who had been an assistant with Mangino at K-State, gave him permission to begin his new job at once.

"Our goal is to be the best team in the Big 12," Mangino said.
