Zweygardt, Bradley are married

Lisa Ann Zweygardt became the bride of James Ray Bradley in a 7 p.m. double-ring candlelit ceremony on Nov. 10, 2001, at the United Methodist Church in St. Francis. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dennis Livingston.

The parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Zweygardt of St. Francis and the parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Rod Perry of Akron, Colo., and Ronald Bradley of Brewster. Both the bride and groom are from Colby.

The pews were decorated with ivory candles in hurricane lanterns with light blue and ivory tulle bows and ivory flowers. The altar was adorned with ivory flowered topiaries highlighted with mini white lights and two candelabras with ivory candles and light blue and ivory tulle.

The bride, given away by her father, wore a white royal satin princess-cut gown with spaghetti straps. The bodice was decorated with lace and finished with beads and pearls. The semi-cathedral train had center-back panel with organza overlay with hem lace and scattered appliques. The finishing touch was the finger-tip veil. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses and orchids.

The bride's sister, Pamela Zweygardt, St. Francis, served as maid of honor and the bridesmaid was Judy Perry of Akron. They wore long ice-blue, satin halter gowns and carried bouquets of blue hydrangeas.

Tammi Grice, St. Francis, was the wedding coordinator and the bride's personal assistant.

Lisa and James Bradley

The groom's brothers, Garrold Gallentine and Joseph Bradley, both of Colby, were the best man and groomsmen, respectively. The junior groomsmen was Zachary Zweygardt, St. Francis, brother of the bride.

Organist was Joan Wellman. She also accompanied Amy Rieger as she sang "When You Say Nothing At All" and "I Do Cherish You." Candlelighters were the maid of honor and bridesmaid. Seating guests were the best man and groomsmen.

The reception was held in the Methodist Church Fellowship hall. A three-tier cake, baked by the groom's mother, was served by Melissa Zweygardt, aunt of the bride, and Christina and Samantha Zweygardt, cousins of the bride. Sarah Green of Atwood, and Millie Stabbs, Omaha, Neb., presided over the tea table.

Sitting at the guest book table was Amanda Howard of Colby. Angie Foster, Colby, presided at the gift table.

Honored guests were the bride's grandparents Grace Zweygardt, St. Francis, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wulf, Goodland; great-grandmother of the bride Louella Bofman, Good Samaritan Center, Atwood; and grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Brown, Protection, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Perry, Akron.

Lisa is a 1998 graduate of St. Francis Community High School and attended Colby Community College where she received an associate's degree. She is employed at Kansas Quick Lube.

The groom is a 1998 graduate of Arickaree High School and graduated from Colby Community College with an associate's degree. He works for Schwans.

The couple is at home in Colby.

Son's death drives parent to steal

DEAR ABBY: In April 1986, you printed a letter from a woman who had lost a child and subsequently started stealing things from a friend.

Please run it again. I know it would be helpful for people who are suffering loss. God bless you.

MRS. N. IN CARLSBAD, CALIF.
DEAR MRS. N.: Grief can manifest itself in many different ways. I'm pleased to print that letter again.

DEAR ABBY: Two years ago my 2-year-old son died tragically. His death was a great shock to me. I expected to go through the normal grieving process, and I did.

However, something unexpected happened. I started to steal. I had no use for anything I took, but I was helpless to stop. Even more disturbing, I stole from people I love and am very close to. This began soon after the death of my son and stopped a few months ago.

The death of my son and the terrible guilt I felt over stealing nearly drove me to suicide twice.

I want very much to return the items I took and apologize to the owners. However, I am afraid they will probably say they "understand," but they'll never trust me in their homes again.

Please don't tell me to seek professional help because my compulsion to steal seems to have left me as quickly as it came.

I need some answers. I've never stolen anything in my life before this. Why did I steal — especially from people I'm close to? The guilt and confusion are weighing me down. Please help me. I want to make everything better, but I don't know how.

CONFUSED AND GUILTY
DEAR CONFUSED: Your compulsion to steal (transitory kleptomania) was triggered by your tragic loss. You unconsciously tried to compensate for your loss by taking from others because something had been taken from you. You stole from those close to you because you unconsciously envied and resented them for not having had to suffer the way you did.

You need more help than I can give you in a letter. You seem to be a fine and decent person who was temporarily destabilized by a terrible loss. You stole to "equalize" things. Forgive yourself, my friend. What you did was sick, and sickness is no crime.

You need absolution and counseling. Please see a therapist and a clergyman if you have one.
