Three new board members elected at Center

Kerry Terhune, from Kansas Legal Service of Hays, presided at the annual membership meeting and election, held at 1 p.m., at the Senior Progress Center. The three new board members elected are Maurice Phelps, Ed Dean and Dorothy Bourquin. Term of office is for three years. There are 11 elected members of the board, the other eight members are as follows: Merle Wolf, Glenn Hamme, Bonnie Fleckenstein, Ralph Jones, Lenora Haney, Glenn Weber, Mary Sonnenfield and Maxine Jones. These 11 members plus Deb Koon, director of the center, make up the board of directors for the Senior Progress Center.

At a special board meeting following the membership meeting, the following officers were elected by the board: president, Maurice Phelps; vice-president, Merle Wolf; secretary, Deb Koon; and treasurer, Glenn Hamme. These board members are dedicated to serving you and the senior center. The board is open to new ideas...make a point to introduce yourself to them and let them know what

Military

Douglas J. Fisher
Air Force Airman Douglas J. Fisher has graduated from basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas.

During the six weeks of training, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization, and customs; performed drill and ceremony marches, and received physical training and special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

He is the son of Joy Haverfield and stepson of Jay Haverfield of Winona, Kan.

He is a 2001 graduate of Triplains High School, Winona.

that indicate the gross income and expenses.

"The service is not just for the elderly, as the AARP association might imply, but for all families or individuals of any age who are in the low or moderate-income level brackets," said Eli Boucher, Hays coordinator of the program.

"Any one who cannot make the assigned meeting times may phone 462-2830 to set up another date and time," said Alice Oelke, area coordinator.

RSVP volunteers need donations of baby yarn to make baby booties for new babies at the hospital. It can be left over or partial pieces of yarn. Leave it at the Senior Progress Center. This is an ongoing project. RSVP will be making booties as well as caps, which they have donated to new babies for many years.
