Helping hands

Ronda Myers/Colby Free Press

Volunteers helping with the remodeling of the new Heartland Christian School on West 4th take a lunch break and are rather creative in finding a chair. Eight men from the Celebration Community Church in Hays braved the bad weather and came to Colby on Saturday, Feb. 9, to lend a hand in hanging sheet rock. Around 20 men from Colby worked with them. "It was a great day of teamwork and much was accomplished," said Ronda Myers, school spokesperson. The school, which currently meet in Mingo, hopes to be in its new facility next fall.
