Everyone invited to pancake feed Saturday

Don't forget that Saturday is the pancake and sausage feed from 7 a.m. until 2 p.m. Tickets are $3 with the event sponsored by the Senior Progress Center. This event is the big fund-raiser of the year, and the center needs the support of the community to make it a success.

The following activities have been scheduled at the Senior Progress Center for the week of March 4 through March 8. Any senior 60 or older is welcome to participate.

On Monday there will be a paint class at 9 a.m.; shuffleboard at 10 a.m.; and cards at 1 p.m.

Tuesday activities include low im-

Lois Myers

- Senior Savvy

pact exercise class at 9:30 a.m.; shuffleboard at 10 a.m.; and cards at 1 p.m.

Wednesday will feature line dance at 10 a.m.; the monthly blood-pressure clinic at 10:30 a.m.; and cards at 1 p.m.

A low impact exercise class at 9:30 a.m. will start Thursday off with shuffleboard at 10 a.m.; and senior bridge at 1 p.m.

Friday's activity is Share-a-Memory/Coffee time beginning at 9:30 a.m. and those attending are asked to share a memorable item with others.

Throughout the week, indoor walking, snooker, pool, puzzles and cards are available whenever the center is open...and the coffee pot is always on! You do not need to be a senior to rent the center for that special occasion. Call Deb at 462-2901 for information.

In addition to the many events at the center, the Homestead nutrition menus for next week are:

— Monday-BBQ'd chicken, bun, coleslaw w/carrots, baked beans, apricots.

— Tuesday-Pepper steak, spinach cheese salad, corn, dinner roll, berry applesauce.

— Wednesday-Ham and beans, cornbread, citrus salad, cherry crisp.

— Thursday-Meat loaf, baked potato, asparagus, bread, pineapple.

— Friday-Macaroni and cheese, tuna salad or little smokies, stewed tomatoes, bread, cinnamon apples. Meal reservations need to be made before noon, 24 hours in advance at 462-2901. Cancellations should be called in as soon as possible and menus are subject to change.

Clubs

Colby Country Club

Bridge winners Tuesday night, Feb. 19, were: Marge Roulrier, 1st; Katie Melvin, 2nd; Thelma Shalz, 3rd.

Brewster Lions

Eight valentines couples and two singles attended the Feb. 13 meeting. Tina Hansen brought the Girl Scouts from Colby to tell of their fund-raising project to help earn their Gold Award. The club had donated Lions Candy for the project, so enjoyed hearing from them and watching their video of the day.

The Bob McLemore family from Colby entertained with picking and singing for the program. Mom, Dad and their two 15-year-old boys, Blake and Brandon, sang and played the banjo, guitar, mandolin and bass fiddle.

The grade school basketball game was set for March 22. Al Rall and Fred Juenemann passed around the necklace and earrings purchased for the drawing at the game, and passed out tickets.

The Feb. 27 meeting will start at 7 p.m. Bob Luckert and Don Crumbaker will be in charge of the program. Rex Jamison is in charge of the supper at the grade school basketball game and will be assigning jobs. Tickets for the jewelry and bed and breakfast give-away are also available at Frontier Equity.

Pi Gamma

The Jan. 4 meeting of Pi Gamma was at the home of Vanessa Eicher with Sharon Kriss as co-hostess. After a brief business meeting, Pat Tubbs introduced Mollie Oliver who presented a timely and informative program on her experiences as a Red Cross volunteer at "Ground Zero" in New York. Members enjoyed a cool ice cream cake served by Sharon Kriss.

The Jan. 18 meeting of Pi Gamma was held at the Prairie Museum of Art & History. Thank yous were read from Pride of the Prairie Orchestra, Shelly Myers and Cindy Black. It was decided that members would volunteer to take meals to Katie Courier while she is recuperating from surgery. Sue Taylor, director of the Prairie Museum, took the members on a walk through time as she told of the WPA and the history of Thomas County and its landmarks. Afterwards, everyone was served a piece of creamy homemade cheese-cake.

The Feb. 1 meeting of Pi Gamma was held at the home of Mary Smith with Pat Criss as co-hostess. The new budget was discussed and approved and thank yous were read for the club's donations to the museum and Santa City. Cora Lee Pfannenstiel, consultation and education outreach consultant nurse educator, enlightened members on how to identify and overcome depression. Dessert was served while members engaged in a group discussion led by Cora Lee.

The Feb. 15 meeting of Pi Gamma was at the home of Nancy Piper with Ann Friesen as co-hostess. Jim Engel, deputy for the Thomas County Sheriff's Department, gave an educational program on meth labs. He presented members with all the products that go into the making of meth, and how it is used. He also warned members of the dangerous chemical products that are found in our fields and ditches, which are discarded by abusers, and which are highly toxic to anyone who comes in contact with them. Jim stated that he would like the opportunity to give programs to other civic groups and area schools, as there is a need to educate citizens about this growing threat to our community.

After a lengthy discussion, Ann Friesen served a strawberry fruit pizza in honor of Valentine's Day. The next meeting will be on March 1 at the home of Ann Friesen.
