Sheen wins drawing

Jeannie Sheen was the winner of the doll which was given away at the Senior Progress Center. The doll was made and donated by Christa Nye and the late Lois Carpenter along with a cradle made and donated by Eldon VanCampen.

The drawing was a money-making project to help with the utilities at the center. Jeannie gave the doll and cradle to Mom Jones as she calls her (Maxine Jones). Maxine has it proudly displayed by the fire place so she can look at it every day.

"Every little girl loves dolls and cradles and some big girls also love their participation."
