Eddie and JoAnn Miller. Others present were Phillip and Penny Miller and girls, Madison, Rylie and Bailey of Overland Park; Jane Hudson of Brewster, Mark and Kelly Miller, Tyson, Abbie and Trey of Colby.

Clyde and Frances Turrell have had many relatives visiting them the last few weeks and enjoyed seeing all of them. Frances thought there were too many to name them all.

Peg Greenwood attended the Retired Federal Employees dinner meeting at the Ramada Inn in Colby on Wednesday evening.

Joan Vaughn hosted the Rexford Bridge Club on Wednesday afternoon with guests, Fritz Ostmeyer, Joy Davis, and Doris Jean Oliver. Prizes were won by Fritz Ostmeyer and Barbara Young. Val Wark will be the hostess on Aug. 28.

Kathi Hapke and her granddaughter Ariel went to 4-H Camp on June 11-14 in Colorado where Kathi was the Camp Nurse. Kathi was also the 4-H Camp nurse at Lakeside June 17 and 18.

Kathi Hapke has been visited by several of her grandchildren this summer, Lucas Hapke from Oklahoma, Brenden and Alyssa of Athchison, Lauren Foster from Colorado and Brady Hapke from Colby. Kathi with her children, and grandchildren attended a memorial service in Nebraska over the Fourth of July weekend.

Marge Leh hosted the Royal Neighbors meeting at the Community Hall Thursday afternoon with six present. The oracle, Darlene Robben, was sick so Marge Leh, the vice oracle conducted the meeting. Plans were discussed for the coming Convention in September. Marge served a delicious salad, crackers, and iced tea for a time of visiting.

Rex and Betty Carswell returned home Thursday from a trip to Alaska. They went with Terry and Steve Salter of McPherson, and Steve's mother and a friend from Garden City left June 26 from McCook on Amtrak to San Francisco.

They boarded the Regal Princess ship on June 28 for the trip to Alaska. They had a great trip with several stops at ports in Alaska. They also did some sightseeing in San Francisco before returning home.

Local family gathers for reunion over July Fourth holiday

The family of Marjorie Loftus Moos gathered together in Colby, July 3-6, for a family reunion held at the Holiday Inn Express. Mrs. Moos, 83, is a long-time resident of Colby. Attending the reunion were 31 family members including her five daughters and one son, five grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, and one sister.

Family members attending were: Vince and Marilyn (Loftus) McCrave from Davenport, Fla., their son Mike McCrave and his two sons, Mitchell and Matthew from Overland Park; their daughter Michele (McCrave) Besette, husband Ed and two sons Danny and Thomas from Pawtucket, RI.

Larry and Betty Loftus from Ft. Worth; their son Rick and two children Whitnee and Austin from Ft. Worth; their daughter Jenny (Loftus) Rompel, husband Alan and two children Trey and Rachel from New Braunfels, Texas.

Sully and Pat (Loftus) Howard from Thornton, Colo., her daughter Rev. Leigh-Ann Tumino, her husband John and daughter Abigail from Syracuse, NY.

David and Carole (Loftus) Elder and granddaughter Brianna from Jonesboro, Ark.; Debbie (Loftus) Lechner from Piney Flats, Tenn.; Al and Ann (Loftus) Hurlburt from Highlands Ranch, Colo.; Dixie Reid (sister) and husband Charlie from Decatur, Alabama.

Activities during the three day reunion included a family bowling tournament, family portraits by Saddler Imagery, a Fourth of July picnic at Fike Park, and a family banquet catered by Desert Rose Inn. A tribute to Mrs. Moos was given by her granddaughter, Rev. Leigh-Ann Tumino, at the dinner held on Friday evening.

Mrs. Moos and her husband, Frank Loftus and three youngest children moved to Colby in 1970 from Park, where he had been the stationmaster for the Union Pacific Railroad. He was transferred to Colby where he was the stationmaster there until his death in 1974. She then married Joe Moos in 1979.

Mrs. Moose is presently living at the Prairie Senior Living Center.
