Boltjes and Cates unite in marriage

Janice Renee Boltjes and Douglas Barrett Cates were united in marriage during a ceremony held on April 6, 2002 at the Sidney Foursquare Church in Sidney, Neb. Rev. Kelvin Boltjes, the father of the bride, officiated the double-ring ceremony as well as escorted his daughter down the isle. The bride is the daughter of Kelvin and Colleen Boltjes of Sidney. She is the granddaughter of Kenneth and Arelene Melendy and Joy Boltjes, all of Otis, Colo. The groom is the son of Lois Unger of Colby, and Terry Cates of Pueblo West, Colo. He is the grandson of Dale Cates of Abilene, who was unable to attend the ceremony. The bride's honor attendant was Jennifer Feather, Wichita, cousin of the bride. Miss Feather also sang for the ceremony, "When you say nothing at all" by Ronan Keating and "Love can build a bridge" by the Judds. Other bridal attendants included the bride's sisters, Brenda Boltjes, Sidney, who was the co-maid of honor, and friend of the bride, Kelly Morton of Colby who was also the guest book attendant. The best man was David Cates of Colby, brother of the groom. The usher was Justin Feather of Otis, Colo. The bride is employed by Farmers &
