Brewster has hard month

July has proved itself to be hard on our residents and former residents. Dorothy Goetsch actually passed away the end of June, but we have lost George Coffey, on the 13th, Mariam Allison, of Oberlin, on the 27th, and on the last day of July, we received word that Ross Tygart passed away, in Orlando, Fla.

It's hard to lose these friends that have moved away, we always feel like we will see them sometime again.

Mariam passed away the day before her 93rd birthday. Her daughter, Pat Wright had read her the birthday messages that came in during the day, and she enjoyed them. That evening, she worsened and passed away. Her services were Wednesday, July 30.

I was reading an e-mail from Jan Tygart Davis about her dad, Ross Tygart, when the phone rang, and it was Jan telling us that her dad had passes away about an hour before.

He will be cremated in Florida, but the Memorial Service will be this Saturday, Aug. 17, at 11 a.m. at the Brewster Cemetery.

To happier news, there was a "birdfest" here at the Senior Center on Wednesday, Aug. 7. Laura Withington, RSVP Coordinator said she wanted to give her award presentation, while Jill and Jessica were still home to give her a hand.

The weather has not been a real pleasure for anyone. Today, Thursday, is a little cooler, but the wind and dirt are blowing. We're still praying for a good rain, although we know the crops are pretty much lost.

The lawns are looking quite stressed and no one has brought in any fresh flowers, this summer. There has been a little produce shared by some gardeners.

Hopefully, the tomatoes will come on later. Us folks at the Center thank the Fox's for sharing their cucumbers and the pickles with us.

ter, Vicky Dumler and grandson, Brady, this past week. She returned home on Tuesday evening, after having a great time attending some of the rodeo's that Brady was entered in. She is learning many tricks of the calf roping event.

On July 27, the Dillinger family reunion was held, in the Brewster Community Church Fellowship Hall. There were 67 family members present. Some came from as far away as Alaska, Georgia, and Texas. The fellowship and food was enjoyed by all, after a short business meeting.

Election day, for this year's primary was Tuesday, Aug. 6. Voting gives you experience for the General election in November. Remember, if we don't vote, we can't really complain about the way things are going.

I don't know about you, but it seems like there have been lots of taxes creep in the last few years. The counties, cities, and state don't seem to think we'll notice the small percent, but they do add up eventually. Think about what would happen if we did not have elections to keep a few of the reins in our control.

Joyce Crabtree has been busy with activities at the Fair, as well as helping her daughter, Bonnie and family move from Utica to the Corpus Christi, Texas. She said her grandsons, Bryan and Jed Gray, did very well with their 4-H rabbit projects.

Seems like every fair time brings a big rain during the activities, but doesn't seem likely to happen this year. I once heard my dad say that if it doesn't rain while the Fair is on, it's really a drought. Seems like it is still a true saying. See you all next week.
