Kayla Harry and Candis Stiles

Kansas will salute 37 community college scholars for their academic accomplishments Feb. 19 in Topeka during the eighth Annual Phi Theta Kappa Honors luncheon, said Deb Schwanke, public information officer at Colby College.

Sophomores at Colby College, Kayla Harry of Colby and Candis Stiles of Hanston, will be representing Colby College at the event.

Harry is a member of Phi Theta Kappa and is a Presidential Scholar at CCC. She is majoring in business administration. Kayla is the daughter of Phil and Dorothy Harry of Colby.

Stiles, a television broadcasting major is a member of Phi Theta Kappa, Student Broadcasters, and the Troiann Dance team. She is also a Student Ambassador. Candis is the daughter of Daryl and Rosie Korf of Hanston and Noel Stiles of Dodge City. The luncheon will be held at the Holiday Inn West/Holidome in conjunction with the February Kansas Board of Regents meeting.

Dr. Mikel Ary, CCC President, will be attending the award ceremony in Topeka.

Each student will receive a proclamation issued by Gov. Kathleen Sebelius, an educational scholarship of $300 and an academic medallion.

Traditionally, the Kansas Regents universities and Washburn University have provided scholarships in the amount of $1,000 for the All-Kansas Team recipients who transfer to their institutions. The students will go to the Kansas Statehouse prior to the luncheon, where they will be given a tour and meet lawmakers.

Quilts from all states decorate Fairview Estate hall

A different quilt of all the states is hanging in Hall A this month. Each state is represented on a white block with information about it. Kansas became a state on Jan. 29, 1861 and is the 34th state. Topeka is the capital. The blocks are set together with red strips and makes an interesting quilt.

Also happy birthday to Florence Schertz who celebrated her birthday on Feb. 7. Family members took her out to eat for the evening meal then came back to Fairview to enjoy cake, ice cream and punch with several friends and family members. On Sunday afternoon Tom and Nancy Schertz and Alma Atkinson came to visit and had a friendly game of cards.

Walter and Brenda McGuire of McCook, Neb. spent several days here at Fairview this week.

Pete Morrison has a hobby of making small benches or tables out of scrap lumber for some time. He decorates them with colorful fabric or paints them and then gives them to anyone who wants them. If you visit his apartment you will see dozens of them in various sizes just waiting for some one to want them. He also makes rain gauges. On a wooden block he fastens a metal pipe about 6 or 7 inches tall to measure the rain they receive in Texas. Another small block has a pipe of about 1/2 inch tall to measure the rain in western Kansas. His latest creation is what he calls a money clip for senior citizens - a very unique little gadget. If you haven't seen one yet, just ask him to show you one and chances are he will give it to you.

Pete is a friendly person and enjoys visiting with everyone.

Some residents with good eyesight and lots of patience have another 1,000 piece puzzle over half done on a table in the west parlor.

They would appreciate your help. More are joining in to play pinochle on these cold winter afternoons. We have some exciting games all played for fun so it makes an enjoyable afternoon.

Rotary Club soup supper planned Tuesday

The Rotary Club soup supper is Tuesday during the Colby/Goodland basketball game. Members are reminded to sell their tickets, but tickets will be available at the door. President Les Brown presided on Feb. 12. Guests were prospective member Nick Wells, David Colborn, a State Farm Insurance Representative, and Rotary Student of the Month, Jason Schwindt. Jason is the son of Dorothy Schwindt, and Robert and stepmother Donna Schwindt of Colby.

Treasurer Nancy LePell gave the treasury report. Les reported the Rotary Club Service project of $5,000 has been given to the City of Colby. This money is helping purchase bleachers and awnings for the ball diamonds.

Nancy LePell sent around for members to sign a Valentine's card for Don Phillips. Don has been a member of the club for many years and the club wishes to recognize him during the holiday.

What's happening in current Rotary events. A Cincinnati Rotary club's new member helped in bringing the Polio Plus Campaign into the public eye. Susan Iswerth is not only a new member of the Rotary Club, she is the public relations manager of the Cincinnati Ballet. She organized a Rotary Night in conjunction with the Cincinnati Ballet "Nutcracker" on December 18, 2002. The title for the ballet was "We Dance So Others May Walk". For each ticket sold to rotary club members and their families, the ballet donated $3 to the Polio Plus Campaign. Les reminded members that the club has not quite reached their $6,000 pledged, and has asked members to help in finding ways to meet this goal.

Flyers were handed out on the Hunger Plus Cruise Raffle. This year is a Canada/New England cruise to be held September 28-October 5, 2003. Consisting of 6 fascinating ports-of-call. The ports are Halifax, Nova Scotia; Saint John, New Brunswick; Bar Harbor, Maine; Boston, Massachusetts; Newport, Rhode Island; and New York, New York. Rotarians have until April 1 to sell tickets. The drawing will be held at the Rotary District Conference, May 2-3, 2003.

Rotary Student Exchange Program is looking for high school students interested in traveling overseas on a scholarship program. If interested contact Les Brown, President of the Rotary club, or any Rotarian.

There will be a rotary Board Meeting next Tuesday, Feb. 18, at 7 a.m. at the First National Bank.

Jane Johnson introduced Dr. David Mruzek, director of the Colby Community College Dixieland Band. There were 10 students and the director to entertain Rotary members. They played songs "Hello Dolly, Down By The Riverside, Five Foot Two-Eyes Of Blue, and Won't You Come Home Bill Bailey".
