Busy week planned for seniors

The Senior Progress Center of Thomas County at 165 Fike Park has many activities for the week of May 12-16. Those include: Monday

- Purple Day; Tuesday — Alive with Exercise at 9:30 a.m., board meeting at 1 p.m.; Wednesday — Line dancing will be at 10 a.m. with Deb Koon, bring a friend to lunch day; Thursday — Alive with Exercise at 9:30 a.m. and learn to dance at 11 a.m.; and Friday — recite your favorite short scripture at 11:30 a.m.

Everyone over 60 is welcome to eat lunch at the center. Donna Schielke, director of the center, says no special invitation is needed to join in the lunch-time fellowship and all are welcome. She did remind everyone that a reservation is needed by noon the previous day.

The menu for next week includes: Monday — macaroni and cheese with smokies, apricots, stewed tomatoes, bread and krisp rice bar; Tuesday — oven fried chicken, mashed potatoes and gravy, asparagus, dinner roll and watermelon; Wednesday — porcupine meat balls, mixed vegetables, orange pineapple salad, bread and applesauce bars; Thursday — roast turkey, candied sweet potatoes, four fruit compote, bread birthday cake; Friday — chili dog, creamed peas, jello with mixed fruit, bread and ice cream with blueberries.

Meal reservations need to be made before noon, 24 hours in advance at 462-2901. Cancellations should be called in as soon as possible. Menus are subject to change.

For other questions about activities or center functions, call Donna Schielke, director, 462-2901.

Nordstrom completes basic training

Marine Corps Private Michael D. Nordstrom, a 2002 graduate of Colby High School, recently completed 12 weeks of basic training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego designed to challenge new Marine recruits both physically and mentally. Nordstrom and fellow recruits began their training each day at 5 a.m., by running three miles and performing calisthenics.

In addition to the physical conditioning program, Nordstrom spent numerous hours in classroom and field assignments which included learning first aid, uniform regulations, combat water survival, marksmanship, hand-to-hand combat and assorted weapons training. They performed close order drill and operated as a small infantry unit during field training.

Nordstrom and other recruits also received instruction on the Marine Corps' core values — honor, courage and commitment, and what the words mean in guiding personal and professional conduct.

Nordstrom and fellow recruits ended the training phase with The Crucible, a 54-hour, team evolution culminating in an emotional cer-

Many area clubs hold monthly meetings

Clubs

Country Club Bridge and Golf

On May 6 meeting, winners were: Gwen Young, first; Charles Davis, second; and Margaret Denneler, third.

For the two-lady scramble on May 6, Sydney Strait and Audrey Hines took first while Anne Siemsen and Amber Barton were second. Next week's golf game will be odd holes. Hostesses will be Katie Melvin and JoAnne Vaughn.

Barnett Auxiliary 6882

Barnett Auxiliary 6882 met May 5 with president Doris Voisin presiding. The meeting opened with prayer followed by patriotic instructions and the flag salute.

The POW-MIA candle was lit and prayer was offered. The minutes were read and approved. The treasurer's report was heard, the bills were presented and allowed for payment.

Correspondence read were General Orders, Presidents Message and thank you cards from Topeka and Wichita VA hospitals and Fort Dodge Soldier's Home.

The hospital chairman reported 111 dozen cookies have been made and sent to the VA hospitals with comfort items.

Awards received at District Convention were first place in rehabilitation, third for Americanism, third for youth, second for hospital, third for publicity and second for Operation Uplink.

A certificate of appreciation was received for Heath and Happiness and for community service.

Monetary funds were allowed to Operation Uplink for phone cards for military personnel.

Monetary donations were also made to Run Across Kansas, PAC and for bowling tickets.

The audit reports were read by the trustee and Charlene Barnett was elected treasurer.

National home prayer was offered and the meeting closed per ritual with the closing prayer.

The next meeting will be June 2 at the Post Home at 8 p.m.

Eastern Star

The Colby Chapter, #442, Order

Solomon Valley 4-H Club

The Solomon Valley 4-H Club of the Eastern Star held their regular meeting on Monday, April 21, at the Masonic Hall in Colby.

The meeting was opened in form with the Pledge of Allegiance and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner, led by Worthy Matron, Martha Hullet and Worthy Patron, Roy Searls.

The Worthy Matron welcomed all members present and one out of state visitor with a poem. The regular order of business was conducted. Reports from the six members who attended the Grand Chapter in Topeka were given.

Invitations to Friendship Night and Grand Officer receptions were read. Reading of minutes of two previous meetings were read and approved.

Under Good of the Order, the Worthy Matron introduced Mary Molstad, Grand Representative of Alabama in Kansas and Roy Searls, Grand Committee Member on Registration Committee.

The following officers were installed: Associate Patron, Walter McGuire; Chaplain, Mary Molstad; Marshal, Elaine Preston; Adah, Mary Jane Losey; Ruth, Brenda McGuire; Electa, Amy Nelson. Other officers installed at a previous meeting were: Worthy Matron, Martha Hullet; Worthy Patron, Roy Searls; Associate Matron, Jeane Searls; Secretary, Joyce Gatlin; Treasurer, Marguerette Edmundson; Conductus, Marjorie Leh; Associate Conductus, Pearl Crisp; Organist, Julia Lefmann; Ester, Pauline Layland; Warder, Cheryl Colson; and Sentinel, Harold Lefmann.

Past Matron, Mary Molstad congratulated the new Worthy Matron, Martha Hullet and presented her with a gift. She also thanked Worthy Patron, Roy Searls for serving in his office the past two years with her, and presented him with a gift and a Past Patrons pin.

The meeting was closed in form, refreshments were served by Sister Marguerette Edmundson.

The next meeting will be Monday, May 5, with a covered dish dinner at 7 p.m. with a meeting at 8 p.m. All members and spouses or guests are welcome.

was called to order by junior president Dustin Splattstoesser on March 10 at 7 p.m. Raya Mazenec let the flag salute and Quinlynn Woofter sang a made up song for the club.

Kelley Splattstoesser read last months minutes and they were approved as read. In remembrance of St. Patrick's Day, roll call, "What would you buy with a pot of gold?" was answered by 20 members.

Matt Hutfles gave the treasurers report and Amy Wilson gave the council report. Lori Wilson gave the leaders report, reminding members of some important things to be aware of. For being the horse project leader, Jennifer Woofter told about some horse related activities going on.

For the program there were many interesting project talks and demonstrations. Jordan Cranston's was very interesting, as he explained how he designed and printed a very unique sports poster. Dana Wilson told us about her goals for the spring project she is enrolled in, and Matt Hutfles gave a project talk on how to make caramel popcorn.

Shawna Goossen showed how to mat pictures to be judged for the photography project, and shared some things that the judges look for. Jared Cranston enthusiastically led the club in a fun game of "Simon Says" for recreation.

Robin Wilson led the 4-H pledge, and the meeting was adjourned. The hosts for the evening were the Lonnie Wilson family.
