Help Wanted

Kansas State University is seeking applications for the position of KSU affiliate site manager for Dodge City Community College. The site manager will coordinate local aspects of an affiliation partnership program between the University and Dodge City Community College, and provide leadership, management, and coordination for the Regents' University-College Partnership Center in Southwest Kansas. The position will be located at Dodge City, Kansas, on the main campus of Dodge City Community College, but will have management and coordination responsibilities throughout western Kansas, with an emphasis on the southwest quadrant of the state, as that area is defined in the state's economic development plan. Candidates for the site manager position must have a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university, and strong interpersonal and teamwork skills. Those selected for interview will be asked to give a 15 minute presentation on "How to establish K-State visibility as part of the Western Kansas Regents University-College Partnership." A complete position description and contact information may be found at www.dce.ksu.edu/dce/employment. Screening will begin on June 23. Kansas State University is an equal opportunity employer. —6/9—6/12—
