Death

Lois Maxine (Chick) Carl
Lois Maxine (Chick) Carl, 74, of Colby, died Sunday, Nov. 2, 2003. She was born on Nov. 15, 1928 in Mingo to Judd and Carrie M. (Thorpe) Chick. Mrs. Carl married Virgil L. Carl on Nov. 19, 1950 in Colby. They had three children, Rick Carl of Emporia; Roger Carl of Lawrence; and Debbie Hauser of Manhattan, Mont.

She served as clerk of the board and high school secretary/book-keeper for 30 years with Colby Public Schools and retired in 1991.

In her retirement years she enjoyed traveling, gardening, playing bridge with her friends and sharing in the accomplishments of her children and grandchildren.

Mrs. Carl was known for her generous heart and she always had a kind word for everyone.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one sister, Esther.

Survivors include her husband, Virgil; sons Rick and Roger; daughter, Debbie; 8 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. Also surviving her is a sister, Eldora Biggs and a brother, Lloyd.

The memorial service for Mrs. Carl was held today at Harrison Chapel in Colby with Pastor Francis Harwerth officiating.

Honorary pallbearers were Casey Carl, Grady Carl, Taylor Hauser, Terry Hauser, Ryan Carl, Errol Biggs, Edd Biggs, Steve Chick and David Chick.

Memorials are suggested to Lantern Park Manor or the Berean Church.

Community Day around the world set

World Community Day is Friday and everyone is invited to attend a coffee at 9:30 a.m. with a program beginning at 10:30 a.m. The event will be held at the Christian Church, 385 W. 3rd in Colby.

In offering some thoughts about World Community Day, Verna Wiens, one of the coordinators, brought in the following information:

"She drew a circle that shut me out... We drew a circle that took her in," from E. Markham.

In addition, she provided this message: "We are called to love because God is love. The Holy Spirit empowers us to carry that love to all humankind. When we dare to love, we engage in a spiritual 'stretching' exercise to carry out God's divine purpose for the world. Let us be transformed into God's people who demonstrate the love God has to offer.

Everyone is invited to attend the Community Day. For questions, call the church at 462-2718.

Ready to adopt

There are five 11-week-old Lab and Border Collie mix ready for adoption at the Colby Animal Clinic. All the puppies are black and white and there are three males and two females. Also for adoption is a 7-week-old black Lab mix. The only fee to adopt a pet is the cost of their immunization shots. For questions or to inquire about an animal, call (785) 460-8621 or stop by the facility during regular business hours at 810 E. 4th St., Colby.

Winona residents spend time in Oklahoma

Heather Garrison of Winona and Joy Rogge of Russell Springs were overnight guests of Van and Tresa Rogge in Kingfisher, Okla. Thursday, Oct. 16 enroute to Sherman, Texas to attend the wedding of Astre' Arnberger, Joy's granddaughter and Heather's sister. Astre' Arnberger and Mat Tulley exchanged wedding vows Saturday, Oct. 18 in Sherman, Texas. Heather and Joy were houseguests of the bride's mother, Michele Barker. While there they also attended a reception for newlyweds Temple Thomas and Ben Chitwood who had exchanged wedding vows the week before in Hawaii. Temple is Joy's granddaughter and the daughter of Cheryl Thomas.

Friends from Albuquerque visit

Wayne and Marjorie Rovie of Albuquerque, N.M. were overnight guests of Rex and Betty Carswell on Saturday. On Sunday all went to Alto to the Carswell reunion.

Edna Colson attended a surprise birthday party for her son Charlie Colson of Colby Saturday evening, Oct. 25 at his home. At least 50 people attended the pot luck and wiener roast meal.

Acousin and wife, Jerry and Barbara Wilson of Aurora, Colo. came for the party.

The Worthwhile Club met Oct. 22 with Edna Colson as hostess. We had our birthday party and everyone received a present from their secret pal. They visited and had their picture taken and enjoyed a nice lunch. Next meeting will be in November with Betty Carswell as hostess.

There were 12 present at the Koffee Klatch in the Barn. Those present were Grace Cheney, Freda Ketchum, Eunice Sanford, Bernida Zoberst, Shawn Spresser, Deloras Dible, Margaret Arasmith, Hulda Wark, Marg Leh, Liz Rall, Vesta Roth and Sondra Barnett.

Hulda Wark and Sondra Barnett went to the huge craft fair in and around Rogers, Ark.

They visited Gloria Dible while in Rogers. The newspaper announced that 200,000 people expected for the fair.

As well as that many more for the Razorback game which was held the same weekend. During the weekend Roger and Karen Wark also visited.

There was a nice turnout for the Legion Pinochle tournament on Saturday.

The prizes were won by Julie and Warren Ziegelmeier of Gem, first prize. Monty and Ellen Stramel of Winona won second and third prize was won by Charlie and Pat Williams of Rexford.

Last Monday there were 14 Barnswallows to play pinochle.

It was their birthday game for the month of October.

It was held at the senior center in Rexford. Zula Horinek brought the cake.

Last Saturday we had a birthday party at our house for Summer. Those present were Larry, Summer Horinek and children, Alyssa, Andrew and Clyde, Gary Delzeit, Patty Ann Casey and Lawrence and Zula Horinek.

Thank You!

We would like to thank all who visited and cared for Judy during her illness and for all the acts of kindness at the time of her death. A special thank you to Dr. Regier, the nurses and staff at the hospital and the staff of L & C Home Health Agency. Thank you to Pastor David Hall for his words of comfort to Judy and her family and to the members of the Lutheran Church and the Menlo Community Service Group for the wonderful dinner.

Thank you to family, friends and neighbors for phone calls, visits, cards, flowers, memorials and food. Thank you especially for all the prayers which helped her through this difficult time and continues to help her family.

May God bless you all.
