Fairview Estates resident celebrates 90th

Bessie Calliham, who lives in Fairview Estates celebrated her 90th birthday on Dec. 19, 2003.

The home was beautifully decorated for the Christmas season and Bessie's granddaughter, Debbie Schuster from Benkelman, Neb. added a festive touch with lavender crepe paper cut in streamers and twisted to form roses to hang on the table corners.

Four large vases of flowers added beauty to the dining hall. One was a poinsettia and three vases were from the family. They were carnations with baby breath and looked beautiful. Fruit plates, cake, punch and coffee were on the tables for guests. Many of the guests hadn't seen each other for a year or more so enjoyed being together again.

Chelsie, a great-granddaughter in the second grade complained they didn't get to sing Happy Birthday to Great-grandma.

Everyone laughed at her. A sincere thank you to my children, Richard and Kathy Calliham of Colby, Barbara and Melvin Bannister of Nappa, Calif., Judith Calliham of Kansas City, Rick Calliham, wife Suzie and children, Chelsie and Christian, Mike and Carolyn Bannister and children, Katie, Bess and Abbie Gale of Tulsa, Okla., Another granddaughter, Terry Grote and children Elizabeth and Patrick of Pleasanton, Calif. and Justin and Cassie Schorzman of Lincoln, Neb. were unable to come.

Welcome to Carol Haselhorst of Colby who became a resident at Fairview Estates this month. We are glad to have her.

Don and Dorothy Crumbaker hosted their Brewster Bridge Club here Wednesday afternoon for two tables of bridge.

Edna Sloan gave the devotions for the Ladies' breakfast Wednesday morning with eight ladies present. Karen Hodges served the meal. Guests of Don and Karen Hodson last weekend were Doris and Everett Roberts from Denver.

Their son, Jeff Kercher, of Bartley, Neb. spent the weekend.

I returned back Sunday evening after spending two weeks with my daughter and husband, Marjorie and Joe Paddock in Rose Hill.

Their two children and families also live in Rose Hill so we were all together several times.

On Dec. 20 we attended the birthday party for Michael and Daniel Paddock, the 2-year-old twins of Rita and Terry Paddock.

One evening we drove around Wichita to see the Christmas decorations and went to Augusta where a park had many animated figures that were really great.

We attended the candlelight services at the Methodist Church on Christmas Eve.

Priscilla Club plans to donate book to library

The Colby Priscilla Club met Thursday evening, Dec. 4, at the Colby United Methodist Church. Sheryl Brenn hosted the meeting and Janice Frahm, co-vice-president, chaired it in President Jerri Shuman's absence. The meeting was called to order with the Club Collect and minutes were approved as read. The budget deficit was quickly covered, and members donated $5 each to the treasury. The donation of a book to Pioneer Memorial Library in Madge Scott's memory was discussed, and it was suggested that it cover piano or music or Southern hospitality, since she was a Southern lady.

Former member Jo Frahm then gave a brief overview of the Spiritual Gifts class she has been teaching at the church. It is a non-denominational self-discovery class designed with worksheets, activities, questionnaires, and discussion to help people find out what their spiritual gifts are. It is usually held for eight weeks, or two or three weekends, depending on the group's time.

It makes people much more aware of their desires to be of service in the church and other religious volunteer activities.

Members then shared their favorite Christmas carols during Roll Call and sent messages to absent members through Christmas cards that were circulated. Members were all missing their friend and member Madge Scott, and her daughter Patsy Arehart. Madge had hosted last month's meeting before succumbing to pneumonia, and her service vice celebrating her life was yesterday.

A poignant Christmas story was then read by member Sharon Steele, meeting was adjourned, and the Benediction recited. Hostess Sheryl Brenn served a delicious coconut cake for dessert with spiced cider. The January 2004 meeting will be on the 8th at Sharon Steele's home with co-hostess Jerri Shuman and program by Helen Frahm.
