

Tough loss for Trojan
ladies, 89-76

In one of the best women's college basketball games ever played at the Colby Community Building, the #16 nationally-ranked Colby Community College Lady Trojans fell in a heartbreaker to #6 Seward County 89-76 in overtime Wednesday night, ending the Lady Trojans' 16-game winning streak.

The Trojans fell behind early as Seward County began the game hitting four 3-point shots in the first 4 1/2 minutes of the game. Colby trailed 20-9 with 13:24 left in the opening frame and later 30-19 with 10:10 left in the first half before rallying with a 21-5 run to give them the lead at 40-35 with 2:36 left.

Seward County would end the half with a 7-point spurt to put them up 42-40 at half-time. Jelena Spiric led the Colby attack in the first half netting 15 points.

Although the Trojans would fight and claw throughout the second half, Colby would never lead the rest of the game. Seward County led by as many as 8 with 6:08 remaining before Colby tied the game to send it into overtime.

In overtime, Stephanie Thiel broke the tie for Seward County 29 seconds in with her 7th 3-pointer. Colby would close the gap to 1 two more times before Seward County hit 9 of 10 free throws in the final 1:07 of the game.

Colby was led by Jelena Spiric's 26 point, 7 rebound and 4 assist performance. Bojana Samardziska added 15 while Ivana Drmanac and Louise McLean each had 11. McLean was the team leader with 8 rebounds.

Colby held Seward County to 43.3 percent shooting while hitting 50.0 percent of their own shots, but the Saints connected on 19 of 20 free throws compared to Colby's 6 of 10 performance. Seward County out-rebounded the Trojans 37-24. Colby hit only 4 of 19 three-point shots while Seward County connected on 12 of 26 from beyond the arc.

Colby is now 17-2 overall and 4-1 in the W/Conference. They will be in Hutchinson Saturday at 6 p.m.

The menu called for Bison.

So the Colby Eagles cooked Bison in the Colby Community Building Tuesday night, much to the pleasure of the partisan crowd.

The Bison, in this case, came from McCook and when the meal was over the Eagles licked their chops, flew the nest and tacked up an 8th basketball victory of the season against just 1 loss.

It wasn't an easy meal to prepare as neither team could claim control of the situation until the buzzer put an end to the event.

The Eagles held a 2-point lead at the end of the opening quarter, 16-14. At half-time, they were up by just 3, 30-27. They put a little distance between themselves and the Bison when the third period ended, 45-36. But those pesky visitors weren't about to roll over and play dead, pumping in 18 points in the final quarter to 13 for the Eagles, but that just wasn't quite enough to roll out the band and do a victory dance.

Leading the way for the Eagles was Shane Stover (and notice Shane I got your name spelled correctly this time) with 17 points. Matt Augustine also scored in double figures with 11 and Derek Elliott joined in with 10.

Other in the scoring column were Brian Sulzman with 9, Irvin Dinkel with 6 and Bruce Arnberger with 5.

Trent Lyons and Paul Putz each scored 19 for McCook, with Lorentz hitting for 9, Gaulke 5 and Liess 2. McCook's record is 6-7.

The Eagles were 52.1 percent from the field (including 1-5 from beyond the arc — Sulzman getting the lone 3-pointer) and 50 percent from the charity stripe, 7-14.

Stover was the rebound leader for the Eagles with 11 (5 offensive and 6 defensive), with others clearing the glass including Sulzman, with 5, Augustine 6, Dinkel and Arnberger 3 each and Elliott 2.

Here is how the 8th-ranked Colby Eagles compiled their 8-1 record so far this season:

Wins over:

Scot City, 63-34
Russell, 77-47
Burlington, 97-54
Oakley, 72-59
St. Francis, 75-30
TMP, 75-64
Goodland, 60-51
McCook 58-54
Lost to:
Hays High, 72-53
