Loretta Muriel McGinley Palmgren
Loretta Muriel McGinley Palmgren, 93, of Levant, died Thursday, Feb. 19, 2004 in Colby. Services were at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 24 at Harrison Chapel in Colby with Pastor Jerry Vincent of Levant officiating. Interment followed at Beulah Cemetery in Colby.

Organist was Pat Ziegelmeier and soloist was Jerry Vincent. Pallbearers were Mike Bahe, Greg Colvin, Mike Garrett, Stephen Bear, Larry Werth and Mike Schultz. Honorary pallbearers were Geoff Reed and Kenny McGuire.

She is survived by a son, LaVelle of Levant and a daughter, Anita of Cincinatti, Ohio; six grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Palmgren was born Dec. 22, 1910 on the Bremenkamp farm one mile east of Levant. She lived all 93 years in Thomas County with the exception of seven years when her parents made a homestead and built a sod house in the sandhills north of Stapleton, Neb. They moved back to the Levant area when she was 8-years-old and lived on a farm southwest of town known as the Thiel place. She rode her horse bareback to a one-room school house three miles away until she went to high school where she graduated. She married Leo, a neighbor, who preceded her in death five and a half years ago. They lived in Levant six years before buying their farm southwest of Levant (just four miles from her home place) where LaVelle, her son, and wife Erma now live. Muriel and Leo lived on the farm 45 years before moving to Brewster in 1975.

She was active in the community and one of the original people who started the Levant Community Church. She taught Sunday school, helped with vacation bible school and was president of the Missionary Society for many years. She enjoyed the Farm Bureau gatherings, liked to raise flowers, play bridge with friends and cards with her family, aerobics, meet with the Rebekah lodge ladies and she loved to read and was a great storyteller. She liked to take rides in the country and appreciated all the sights.
