'Molly Brown' will be in Colby Thursday

The Western Plains Arts Association will present "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," at 7:30 p.m., Thursday in the Colby High School auditorium.

This production, said Vicky Waldschmidt, publicity chair with the association, is a spirited tale of a legendary, real-life American.

"The exploits of Molly Brown whose feisty determination to rise above her impoverished beginnings leads her from the backwoods of Hannibal, Mo. to the palaces of Europe," she said.

In this musical, Molly Brown marries a lucky prospector, enters the highest echelons of Monte Carlo society, survives the sinking of the Titanic and most importantly, earns the approval she desperately seeks of those "Beautiful People of Denver."

With songs such as "I Ain't Down Yet," "Belly Up to the Bar, Boys," "Colorado, My Home," and "I'll Never Say No," Windwood Productions presents this funny, light, uplifting and uniquely American musical, she said.

Admission at the door will be $15
