

Area churches invited to help celebrate World Day of Prayer

World Day of Prayer will be Friday. The Winona United Methodist Women are hosting the service at the Winona United Methodist Church at 2 p.m. Special invitations have been extended to churches in the area including Page City Lutheran, Faith Chapel, Russell Springs Episcopal and the Catholic women. Refreshments will be served after the service. Everyone is welcome. Attending the Jan Kraybill organ recital at the Presbyterian Church in Colby Sunday were Erma Latham, Lucille Bruns, Donita Goyen, Doneta Gates and Jean Lowe. The program was sponsored by the Western Plains Arts Association. Debbie Wright recently took a trip to Olathe to visit her daughter and family, Jason and Trudi Gager and Brookelyn. Trent and Kasey Wright of Fort Scott joined them to celebrate Trent's birthday. The Sunshine Kids Club met at the Winona U.M. Church Wednesday. Assisting Pastor Eurit were Dorothy Kirkham and Erma Latham. The kids met every Wednesday with the exception of the first Wednesday of the month. All kids from second through fifth grades are welcome. Virgil and Judy Piland of Bennett, Colo. were Monday overnight guests of her sister, Erma Latham. Ask Evelyn Langdon about her granddaughter, Dora Langdon. She will tell you how proud she is of her for earning a place on the Dean's Honor Roll at Colby Community College. Leap Year Day is not just another day for 92-year-old Florence Strange of WaKeeney, who will celebrate her 23rd birthday on Feb. 29. Florence Strange and the late Harold Strange will be familiar names to some readers of this column. They occupied one of the Union Pacific Railroad tenant houses which stood east of the former Garvey Elevator, which is now owned by Winona Feed and Grain. Harold was an employee of the Union Pacific Railroad in Winona during the 1930s and was transferred to Ellis in 1941. Florence is an aunt of Helen Stramel of Winona. Beth Lamb, John Lamb, Jason and Mollie Lamb and Maddie attended the Bunker-grund bull sale in Oakley Wednesday.

Rexford holds pinochle tourney

The American Legion had their pinochle last Saturday at the Legion Hall. They have a tournament every month. Winners were Ben Albers and Steve Shuler; Grace Cheney and Deb Stepper were second and third was won by Dave Williams and Junior Albers. They had seven and a half tables.

ball. They spent the night with Steve and Terry Salter in McPherson. They got in on a real thunderstorm that evening with thunder and lightning and a downpour. They they went to Hays to celebrate their grandson's birthday. Darron was 18-years-old. Royal Neighbors met at the Community Hall to have club. There were five present. Deb Stepper was hostess. The Friday Coffee Klutch had a large group. Those present were Delores Dible, Eunice Sanford, Clea Moeder, Berneda Zoberst, Deb Stepper, Liz Rall, Velma Barnett, Sondra Barnett, Hulda Wark, Grace Cheney, Vesta Rall and Darla Dible. Zula Horinek had surgery at the outpatient surgical department. Her husband Lawrence and their two sons Larry Horinek and Gary Delzeit went with her. When I got home that evening Clea Moeder had a nice arrangement of bright pink carnations.

Sunday was 'glorious' day in Colby

What a glorious day Sunday was! It rained! I don't know how much rain we received but it was a pretty sight to see it running down the windows.

We are very thankful for it and the snow that fell in the night. Howard Lahman of Oberlin visited Mary and Emerson Lahman last Sunday afternoon. On Tuesday last week Barbara Saber from Denver was a guest of her uncle, Pete Morrison. Recent guests of Irene Kehlbeck from Bird City were her niece, Darcy Kehlbeck and Marcia Hickert, Roberta Linen and Millie Glasco. Bonnie Burr came one day last week and she and Irene went out for coffee. Mary B. Grady and her friend, Sarah Jane Barrett enjoyed lunch together last Tuesday. Olive Kersenbrock returned home Thursday after spending several days with her son and wife, Jack and Jane Kersenbrock in Norton. Don and Karen Hodson took a business trip to McCook last Wednesday and also visited some relatives while there. Bud and Marlene Murphy of Cheyenne, Wyo. were overnight guests of Freda Thieler last Tuesday night. They went to Goodland on Wednesday to attend funeral services for Bud's aunt, Velma M. Scheopner. Our sympathy goes to her family. Edna Sloan and Bessie Calliham attended the meeting of the women's afternoon cluster of the United Methodist Church which met here at Fairview Wednesday afternoon. Fay Goeken gave the devotions for the group.

After 5 Club to feature 'This Old House'

The High Plains Kansas After 5 Club is inviting everyone to its dinner party "This Old House," from 7 to 8:30 p.m., Tuesday, March 9, at the Shepherd's Staff Conference Center in Rexford. Featured topic is "Don't Fence Me In," with Steve Molstad, co-owner of Colby Canvas, giving tips on sprucing up the exterior of homes or businesses using PVC fencing and canvas awnings. Music will be provided by Jackie Morgan, Menlo, who will be singing and the guest speaker is Peggy Lee, Prairie Village, with her topic "Shades of the Heart." In her presentation, Lee will talk about her experiences being a mother with a handicapped child and about the "good and bad detours of life." Reservations and/or cancellations for the March dinner party must be received no later than Saturday by calling Carol Bohme, (785) 462-2791 or Janis Bakan at (785) 672-3809. Another reservation alternative is to contact Lori Haberer by e-mail at: lorihaberer@hotmail.com Nursery service is available, but those interested are asked to make a reservation by call Brandy Todd (785) 687-4465. The After 5 Club is affiliated with Christian Women's Club and each month features a variety of programs.
