HAYS — The Fort Hays State University chapter of Collegiate Music Educators National Conference, a national association for music education, attended the Kansas Music Educators Association state in-service workshop Feb. 26-28.
 Jill Nickols, a senior at Fort Hays State and graduate of Colby, was one of many area students who went to the workshop

Thomas County Red Cross offers caregiving classes

The Thomas County Red Cross office is sponsoring a series of one-hour sessions aimed at providing help to those who care for a loved one at home.

The sessions will assist participants in providing a safe environment and the most basic care when adding in stress factors such as a job or raising children, said Mary Smith, Thomas County Red Cross director.

All meetings will be held at the Red Barn Senior Center in Rexford starting at 7 p.m.

Those interested can attend one or all of the informational meetings and learn how to provide the best care possible.

The following is a list of the other sessions:

- Tuesday, March 9 — Caring for the Caregiver
- Thursday, March 11 — Healthy Eating
- Tuesday, March 16 — Caring for a Loved One with Alzheimer's disease or Dementia
- Tuesday, March 23 — Home Safety
- Tuesday, March 30 — Legal and Financial Issues

For questions about these sessions or to register, call Smith at (785) 462-7161.
