Bus drivers lose contract

JETMORE (AP) — Two substitute school-bus drivers who inadvertently left a 4-year-old boy on a school bus for nearly seven hours have lost their contracts and could face litigation.
The boy's mother, Candice Koehn, said her lawyer was investigating the case.
Koehn's son Erik was picked up from his home in rural Hodgeman County last month, bound for preschool at Jetmore Grade School. He remained strapped into a safety seat for almost seven hours before his mother and school officials found him.
Immediately after the incident, the Jetmore school board suspended the drivers, Dan Shuler and Nick Cossman. On Monday, the board terminated the driver's contracts completely. Shuller handled the morning bus route on March 22 and Cossman handled the afternoon route.
"The issue has been a concern, there's no doubt about it," Jetmore Superintendent Randall Jansonius wouldn't say if Shuler's position as a woodwork instructor at Jetmore High School was in jeopardy.
The Jetmore district now calls on drivers to check a list of all children who board their buses so school officials know which students to expect, Jansonius said.

Woman accused of murder

RUSSELL (AP) — A woman accused of killing a Mississippi couple found last week at a vacant Kansas farm will not fight extradition to Mississippi, but a man also charged in the homicides will, Russell County Attorney Daniel Krug said Wednesday.
Roger Gillett, 29, and Lisa Jo Chamberlin, 31, both of Russell County, appeared separately in court earlier this week and were served with the Mississippi warrants charging them with murder in the deaths of Vernon Hulet, 34, and Linda Heintzelman, 38, both of Hattiesburg, Miss.
Authorities executing a drug-related search warrant found the bodies March 30 in a freezer at a vacant farm southwest of Luray.
Hattiesburg, Miss., police have said a preliminary investigation showed the murders occurred at the home of Hulet and Heintzelman in Mississippi, and the bodies were taken 1,000 miles to rural Russell County. Hattiesburg Police Chief David Wynn said authorities are still trying to determine a motive.
