

Triplains graduate places high in track at Fort Hays State

There's more than bricks and mortar on the Fort Hays State University campus for Ashley Latham. She is a three-year track participant at the college. The Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference track meet was held at Fort Hays Friday and Saturday.

• Winona Correspondent

She took third in the 100-meter hurdles, second in the 400-meter hurdles and the 4x400-meter relay placed third. Ashley holds the record at Fort Hays for the 400-meter hurdles.

She is a 2001 graduate of Triplains. Attending from Winona were Linda Latham, Erma Latham, Verla Moser and Tracee Mackley, whose son Preston is in track at Fort Hays.

Cleo Langdon of Sharon Springs called on Evelyn Langdon on Friday.

Joyce Beohme, Evelyn's daughter, of Goodland, treated her to Mother's Day brunch at the Village Inn in Colby.

She also had a telephone call from her son, Troy Langdon, who is a teacher in the Ulysses school system.

He will receive a master's degree from Emporia State May 15. Troy will deliver the commencement address for the 2004 graduates of Ulysses High School on May 22. Troy is a 1985 graduate of Triplains. Bob and Anne Lowe went to Texas to meet their new granddaughter, Melody Lynn Steeples, who was born April 29, 2004. Brad and Julia Steeples of Euless, Texas are the proud new parents of their first born.

Saturday overnight guests of Dorothy and Lynn Moulden were Dorothy's granddaughter and her husband, Traci and Daron Trent of Lawrence.

Joyce Bartell was a Saturday evening dinner guest of Dalene Bartell and Glen Kemp at a local cafe. Mother's Day, Kyle Bartell and Rhonda Fischer took Joyce to Colby for lunch and shopping. She had a call from her grandson, Bill Sroufe, in the evening.

Pauline Smith accompanied Gerald and Betty Shipley to Burlington, Colo. Friday.

Monday, Pauline called on the Shipleys at their home in Oakley.

LaVonne Baxter's sister, Vivian (Marcotte) LaGesse, lives in Lexington, Tenn. Another sister, Pat (Marcotte) Weeks and her husband, Bill Weeks, of Hoxie, invited LaVonne to accompany them to Tennessee to visit relatives.

LaVonne was a house guest of Vivian while Pat and Bill visited a daughter of Pat's in another town in Tennessee. LaVonne returned to her home in Winona after being away for 10 days.

Donita Goyen's Mother's Day celebration began Thursday when she went to Kingman to be a guest of her son and family, Kevin and Dorena Goyen, Sarah and Skyler. The Kingman fourth graders invited families and friends to view the Indian project on which they had been working.

Donita's grandson, Skyler, had made a replica of an Indian tepee. He also displayed a full-sized buffalo robe which he had borrowed from his uncle, Devin Goyen. Donita said it attracted much attention. Saturday, the Goyens all went to Kansas City where Kevin participated in a two-day bowling tournament. Donita remained in Kingman overnight Monday in order to attend the Kingman elementary school music program. She returned to Winona Tuesday.

Commodity distribution Monday in Colby

There are a variety of commodities available for distribution Monday from 8-11 a.m. at the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program office at the Senior Progress Center, 165 Fike Park.

Those commodities include yams, chocolate and vanilla pudding, apricots, corn and rice cereal, salmon, raisins, peanut butter, tuna, pears, tomato sauce and walnuts.

Eligible people may receive them according to income guidelines on the above date and time only. Distribution is on first-come, first-served basis and may not begin until the advertised time. Participants are asked to not arrive at the distribution site more than 30 minutes prior to the distribution. Eligible people who are unable to attend the distribution may send a signed permission slip with another person to pick up their commodities. One person may pick up for their household as well as three others with signed notes.

For information, call 462-6744.

Brewster mourns the death of former resident

We were very sorry to hear that Ariel McDaniel Andrist, former Brewster resident, passed away in St. Francis last week.

She was the daughter of the late Hank and Eva McDaniel and the sister of Kenneth Dean McDaniel. Our sympathy is extended to the family on this loss.

Jim Tubbs, Levant, also passed away this week and we send our condolences to his wife, Hedy, and other family members.

LaVelle Michael has been admitted to Citizens Medical Center in Colby for treatment and tests.

In visiting with her son, Ed, I found out that Jean Hutton is progressing nicely at Lantern Park Manor and that was very good to hear.

Lyman Bear said his mother,

Lorraine Bear, is also doing very well at that facility. Clarice Berry Blakely enjoyed a family time for her birthday on the 7th of May but looks forward to the reunion coming up next month.

A reminder of Dot Mayer's 100th Birthday on May 25 at her facility at 2720 Sunnyside Drive in Montrose, Colo. 81401.

Barbara Springsteen is in the last stages of moving to Garden City later this month and we wish her the best on her move even though we will miss her. I hope she remembers the road between here and there and visits often.

The City Wide Garage Sale is still being organized so keep looking in those nooks and crannies. The date is Saturday, June 5, beginning at 8:30 a.m., so be sure to come to Brewster.

I talked to Betty Wolfe about Corky's 75th birthday and she said he had a fine day.

He wants to thank everyone for the cards, e-mails, phone calls and everything else that made his day such a special time for him.
