Help needed on Special Olympics Flag project

The Special Olympics Flag Committee is in need of volunteers for their fundraising efforts. Each year over 200 flags are placed at businesses and residences to celebrate some of the legal holidays.

"As with all fundraising events volunteers are needed to continue this worthwhile project," said Chuck Dempewolf, one of committee members.

"The volunteers place the flags at the businesses or homes on a scheduled route of about 20-25 stops, taking approximately one hour to place the flags at sunrise and another hour at the end of the day to pick up the flags," he said.

The routes can be adjusted to suit the individuals volunteering, access to a pick up is helpful but not nec-

"If you would like to help but cannot commit to the time, volunteers are also needed to prepare an area for the existing flags and any new flags by placing a tube in the ground for the flag and marking the curbs,"

This project was started six years ago and has raised over $40,000 in
