Stan W. Clark

Stan W. Clark, 49, died Saturday, May 29, 2004 from a vehicle accident on Interstate 70 in Gove County.

Mr. Clark was born Dec. 9, 1954 in Oakley to Bob J. and Edith L. Clark. As a lifetime Oakley area resident, he was involved in many organizations to include his public service, current and past, as a Kansas state senator, serving as chairman on both the chairman of the Senate Utilities Committee and Information Technology Committee and as a member of the Agriculture, Financial Institutions and Insurance, Rules and Regulations, Assessment and Taxation and Election and Ethics Committee.

Other memberships were the Dunkard Brethren Church, Quinter; vice-chair of the Kansas Agriculture Added-Value Center; Hudson Essex Terraplane Club; guardian of the National Federation of Independent Businesses; chairman of the Oakley Board of Zoning Appeals; vice chair of the Oakley Planning Commission; president of the Oakley Area Chamber of Commerce; chairman, Oakley Pride Committee; and president of the Fick Fossil Museum.

Mr. Clark married Ruth Flory of Sturgis, Mich., on Feb. 11, 1990 at Defiance, Ohio. He is survived by his wife of Oakley; one son, Will P. Clark of the home; his parents of Oakley; two brothers, Ron Clark, Oakley and Drake Clark of Wallace; a sister, Susan Brabec, Manhattan and many nieces and nephews.

Preceding Mr. Clark in death were his grandparents, Chester Clark, Anna Clark, John Suter, Ida Suter and Marie Suter.

Services will be Thursday at 11 a.m. in the Oakley High School auditorium with Gordon Jamison officiating. Burial will be in Oakley Cemetery. Visitation is today from 2 to 9 p.m. at Kennedy-Koster Funeral Home in Oakley and 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the school auditorium. Memorials are suggested to Gideons International, Will Clark Education Fund, and Wild West Historical Foundation.

All arrangements are being provided by Kennedy-Koster Funeral Home, 217 Freeman, P.O. Box 221, Oakley, Kan. 67748.

Prairie Heritage Daze starts June 12

Prairie Heritage Daze will be held Saturday, June 12 in Fike Park in downtown Colby.

"This festival is held annually to preserve and honor our heritage and is held in conjunction with the Cruise to the Past Rod Run, said Leilani Thomas, director of the Colby Convention and Visitors Bureau.

The day begins with a biscuit gravy breakfast or full breakfast served by the Wesleyan Church in the Colby Community Building from 7-10 a.m.

The craft fair opens in Fike Park at 9 a.m. along with the Rod Run's Show and Shine.

Other activities include crafts and air rides by the Hometown Amusement Association for children, musical entertainment by High Altitude D. J. and lots of food.

Prairie Iron Antique tractor show will also be held in the park throughout the day, she said. A children's workshop by Dave Dickerson, a scholar with the Chautauqua troupe, will be presented at 11 a.m. on the deck of the Senior Progress Center.

A free watermelon feed will be held in the park at 3 p.m. sponsored by Farmer's and Merchants Bank.

"It promises to be a very full and interesting day for the entire family," she said. All activities are to conclude by 4 p.m.

For questions or other information write Thomas at: Colby Convention & Visitors Bureau, P.O. Box 572, Colby, Kan. 67701; or telephone here at (785) 462-7643.
