

Summer Reading Programs begin; library hours shortened

Summer is here—well, not officially of course, but it has arrived at Pioneer Memorial Library as far as our summer reading programs for children and families and our shortened hours are concerned.

From now until after Labor Day, the library's hours will be as follows: Monday through Wednesday, 9 a.m.-6 p.m.; Thursday 9 a.m.-8 p.m.; Friday 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; Saturday 9 a.m.-4 p.m. and Sunday 1-4 p.m.

Summer also brings with it some great opportunities for reading and of course I have a few suggestions up my sleeve.

For instance, Dumping Billy by the late Olivia Goldsmith (The First Wife's Club) is a fun read by this talented author. Billy Nolan, a gorgeous hunk of a man, has the reputation of dumping every girl he dates.

Interestingly enough, each girl he dumps goes on to marry the next person she meets. Kate Jameson, who has known Billy since they were children, decides to use him to help out her best friend Bina who is devastated by her broken engagement. Kate figures if she can just get Bina and Billy together, he will dump her (after all, he dumps every girl he dates!) and Bina's wayward ex-fiancé will come back to claim his bride. With a little help from their other friends (they call themselves "Bitches of Bushwick") they figure nothing could be further from the truth. Olivia Goldsmith died recently and we will miss her snappy stories and great characters. Dumping Billy is a good summer read.

Sleeping Beauty by Phillip Margolin, author of Heartstone, Gone But Not Forgotten and other best-sellers, is one thriller you won't want to miss.

Ashley and her best friend Tanya, both high school superstars, had just gone to bed at Ashley's house after a postgame pizza party when they were disturbed by an intruder who proceeded to slaughter Ashley's father and best friend.

Inexplicably he stopped for a snack giving Ashley an unexpected opportunity to escape. Of course the haunting memories of that night torment her forever.

As always, Margolin spins a tale that is a real page turner and certainly not for the faint of heart (or stomach). Sleeping Beauty has a genuinely surprising ending. For thriller fans it is a must.

Finally, since summer seems to be a make-over time for a lot of people, this next book might be just what you need.

The Comfort Trap, or What If You're Riding A Dead Horse? by Judith Sills poses the interesting question, "What would you do if you weren't afraid?" For example, maybe you've been in the same job for 15 years and it looks like only a stick of dynamite will get you to jump ship. Or perhaps you know something is missing in your personal relationships but you don't want to rock the boat.

You have a habit you want to break or a risk you know you should take but you just can't get yourself to do it.

Sills says that is because you are stuck in your comfort zone. This book is for people who want to change but aren't sure how to do it. "If the horse is dead, get off" is the message this book gets across to the reader.

Be sure to make the library a big part of your whole family's summer activities.

We're located at 375 W. Fourth and look forward to serving you. For more information, contact the library at 462-4470.

Congress Republicans urge closed GOP primary

TOPEKA (AP) — One day before a decision is expected from their state party, Republican members of the state's congressional delegation urged Thursday that GOP primary elections in Kansas remain closed.

Both the state GOP and the state Democratic Party can open their primaries to non-party members — despite a long-standing Kansas law to the contrary — because of a recent federal appeals court decision.

Secretary of State Ron Thornburgh, the state's chief elections officer, asked the two parties to decide by the June 10 candidate filing deadline. As of Thursday, neither party had. The parties could keep their primaries closed, as they are now. They could allow participation by all non-party members — even those registered with other parties — or they could expand participation only to unaffiliated voters.

State GOP Chairman Dennis

Jones scheduled a news conference for 1 p.m. Friday at the party's headquarters in Topeka to announce his party's plans.

Democratic Chairman Larry Gates said his party's executive committee will meet Monday to discuss the primary and may poll other party leaders.

Chautauqua starts Thursday with many events

Historians will be performing each evening during the tent show which begins at 7 p.m. with musical entertainment.

Breakfasts, adult and children workshops will also be held daily as well as other community events, said Leilani Thomas, coordinator of the event.

Each evening, families may visit the Kid-Tauqua to play territorial games and learn about Native Americans in Kansas, create a Chautauqua coloring book, and try on period costumes.

Children (grades 5-8) may also register for Youth Camp where they will learn how to research, write and perform a historical character.

"Registration is necessary to Judy Kleinsorge at Prairie Museum of Art & History and it is a commitment for five days," she said.

Activities will kick-off on Thursday, June 10 at 7 p.m. at the museum grounds for a tent raising social also at 7 p.m. There will be a watermelon feed sponsored by the Colby Rotary club and entertainment by the Tumbleweed Chorus.

The complete schedules of events are available at the Pioneer Memorial Library, Colby Chamber of Commerce, Colby Visitor Center and Prairie Museum of Art and History.

"You may also visit www.kansas-humanities.org," she said. This program is sponsored by Kansas Humanities Council.
