Deaths

Harlan Boye

Harlan Boye, born April 18, 1931, died Saturday, June 5, 2004 in Marshfield, Mo., following a long illness.

He was born and raised in Holyrood, where he became interested in music and served as his church organist for years.

His college years were spent at Colorado University where he studied music and was also in the Air Force Reserves.

He taught music in Buena Vista, Colo., and also in Tribune where he met and married his wife, Mary Jo Woofter.

He later obtained his Masters Degree in Music and his Masters in School Administration. Principalships at Eagle Colo. High School in Colorado and Hoisington High School preceded his operating a flower shop in Hoisington for many years. He retired in Marshfield, Mo.

Mr. Boye is survived by his wife, Mary Jo, his son, Mark of Morrison, Colo., and his daughter, Marna Coddington, Fair Grove, Mo.

Mrs. Boye's sister is Jan Wolf, who lives in Colby.

He was preceded in death by his mother and father, Bertha and Orian Boye, and his brother, Duane, all of Holyrood.

Allan (Al) Ross Shier

Allan (Al) Ross Shier, 77, of Edmonton, Alberta, died Monday May 24, 2004 at the Gray Nuns Hospital.

Mr. Shier was born in Carnduff, Saskatchewan on July 25, 1926.

The family moved to Weldon, Saskatchewan after a fire destroyed their home where he lived until serving in the army during WWII. He moved to Edmonton in 1949 and joined the Edmonton Police Force.

He married Marie Serink and they had four children. He married Delores Watson in 1973 in Victoria, British Columbia.

Survivors include his wife, Delores; son Ross Allan Shier of Spruce Grove, Alberta; daughters, Deborah Mariman of Colby, Arlene Tomnuk and Lori Shier, both of Edmonton, Alberta.

Also surviving are 23 grandchildren, 7 great-grandchildren; 7 brothers; 4 sisters and many other family members.

A private family service was held at Mr. Shier's request and cremation took place.

Donations may be made to the Kidney Foundation of Canada, Edmonton, Chapter #307, 10335-172 street, Edmonton, AB T5S 1K9.

Blowing dirt will continue in forecasts

GOODLAND (AP)—After four years of persistent drought in parts of northwest Kansas, the National Weather Service's office here is calling more attention to high winds that increase the risk of blowing dirt.

When a storm system is developing, forecasts are more likely to routinely include not only information about the chance of rain, but word that winds could be strong enough to whip up enough blowing dirt to cut visibility for motorists traveling through the area.

Winds of 50 to 55 mph are strong enough to reduce visibility. So Dave Floyd, warning coordination meteorologist in the service's Goodland office, said advisories are being posted even when there's little chance that winds will approach the intensity of a severe thunderstorm.

Two people, including Sen. Stan Clark, of Oakley, were killed in Interstate 70 traffic accidents after dust storms caused a sharp drop in visibility over much of the area on May 29 and 30.

The blowing dust also reduced visibility last Friday, and again on Tuesday a wind advisory was in effect for parts of central and western Kansas, where gusts of up to 45 mph were forecast.

There is no immediate end in sight, Floyd said. The forecast calls for the drought to continue through at least August.

Winona woman represents church at Salina event

Delegate Lois Starns, represented the Winona United Methodist Church at the annual Kansas West conference in Salina from Tuesday through Friday.

Warren and Lois Starns attended a 50th wedding anniversary celebration in Great Bend over the weekend. Tom and Maytha Starns were the honorees. Tom is a brother of Warren Starns.

A romance that cuminate 50 years ago, 5 children, 14 grandchildren, and 2 great grandchildren later was worth of a special celebration.

That couple is Larry and Bette Haverfield. Their children are Kathy Lucas, Nancy Parkhurst, Dawn

McKinney, Calvin Havefield, and Jay Haverfield. All the siblings and their families were present at a dinner in honor of their parents at the home of daughter, Dawn McKinney, in Leoti. Out of state guests over the weekend at the home of Larry and Bette Haverfield were Larry's sister and her husband, Ruth Ann and Charles Burthner of Scottsdale, Ariz., David and Seetha Burtner of Ft. Collins, Colo., and Nancy Parkhurst of Kerrville, Texas.

Early Friday evening the weather was windy and disagreeable but it was no obstacle for the athletes who participated in SonGames during VBS at the Winona United Methodist Church. A sizable group of parents, grandparents and friends enjoyed hearing the songs the kids had learned and hearing each teacher introduce their students individually. Teachers and assistants who made lessons interesting and crafts, games and singing fun were Linda Latham (coordinator), Jean Spencer, Sherri Mackley, Cortney Moser, Amber Mackley, Marilyn Ochs, Belinda Babst, David Spenser, Pam Lewallen, Christi Schertz, Ruth Smith, Nichol Homburg, and Sandi Margheim. Youth helpers were Amberly Gfeller, Susanna Smith, Rachael Smith, Alex Bermeo, and Doug Margheim. Lanis Kirk provided the art work for the mural.

Ashley Latham of Hays and Candice Latham and a friend of Lawrence were recently home for a visit with their parents, Brad and Linda Latham. Brad and Linda Latham were among the guests at the 60th wedding anniversary celeration for Lloyd and Ruth Theimer in Colby.

Memorial weekend guests of LaVonne Baxter were Karen Baxter and Linda of Garden City. Other visitors were Amber Baxter, Sidney and Jarred of Burlington, CO., and Billie Baxter of Winona.

Kendal and Sharon Wright hosted a bargeque Saturday evening. Guests were Mary Wright and Donnie, Paulina and Randy Huffman of Oakley, Jerry and Marietta Wright of Wallace, Derek Wright of Yuma, Colo., Jason and Trudi Gager and Brook of Olathe, and T. and Linsey Wright of Grinnell.

A family's philosophy of the love that binds is rooted in the belief that memories never die. The memorial service Sunday, May 30 for Alice Wycoff Hillery Tollakson brought back countless memories. The Russell Springs Episcopal Church was filled with family and friends.

Fairview Estates celebrates two birthdays

By LULA THIELER

Fairview Estates writer

We sang "Happy Birthday" to two last week—Dorothy Crumbaker and Don Hodson; We with them many more.

The Crumbakers' daughter, Jane Kech from Brewster was a dinner guest on Sunday.

Zelma Reed was very happy to have her daughter and husband, Kathy and Bob Bryan from England visit her for several days.

Virginia Reed from Houston,

Texas was also a visitor.

Sue and Larry Oskay of Littleton, Colo. were guests of Esther Wieland and family over Memorial Day weekend.

Sue is a sister of Esther.

Eileen Dible and I attended the Social Hour Club in Rexford at the Red Barn Wednesday afternoon. Our good friend, Margie Leh provided the transportation for us.

It was a fun afternoon of visiting, playing bingo and enjoying the delicious refreshments served by the hostess, Margie Leh.

Several residents attended the Picnic in the Park Thursday at the noon hour and enjoyed the music provided by the McLemore Family.

Ralph Gfeller was a guest of his daughter and husband, Lana and Dave Starkey, for dinner on Sunday.

The rain we had Friday evening was great and such a contrast from the dirt storm we had last week.

Rain makes everything look so much brighter.

Thank You

Alvin and Marilyn (Cheney) Korte would like to take this opportunity to give a heartfelt "Thank You" to every person who made the effort to make our 40th Wedding Anniversary such a "SPECIAL" and awesome event. Thank you for each card, gift and "Happy 40th Wedding Anniversary" that was showered on us. We especially thanks Marilyn's sister Lois Ann (Cheney) Hake, who came all the way from Montrose, Colo. We also want to let our two daughters, Mindy & Pamela, and their families know how very much we appreciate them and their tireless effort to make it all happen. We will forever cherish our precious memories of you and our 40th Anniversary. We are left feeling so loved and blessed to have each one of you in our lives. Yes, we would do it all over again and we'll "Remember When."
