The Colby Swim Club took its second first place title during league swim last weekend in Burlington, Colo. The team brought home nearly 30 first place medals with some swimmers making a clean sweep in their age division.

Together the Colby swimmers racked up 353.5 points with the closest competitor, the Burlington Swim Club at 211 total team points. Third place went to Holyoke at 197.5 and Goodland taking fourth with 113 total team points. The other six teams in the league were fifth place Wray, 109 points; Flagler Swim Club, 65; St. Francis, 62; Oberlin, 37; Limon, 33; and Oakley with 15 points.

In addition to its second first place overall, many Colby swimmers had individual successes. Among those taking first place in either individual or relays were Kortney Bredemeier, Madison Rogers, and the combined efforts in the relay of Lauren Bell, Karly Shull, Rogers, and Goudy in the 8 and under; Christina Ostmeyer and the combined relay team of Ostmeyer, Collen Garret, Hollie Herbel and Morgan Bell in the 9 and 10 age group also walked away with first place honors.

Jessica Leiker took first place in the 13 and 14 age group, along with first place winners, Becky Lang and Erika Erickson, in the 15 through 18 age division.

Colby boys also had a good day with John Faber and the combined relay efforts of Faber, Kyle Finley, Aaron Faber, and Travis Finley taking first place medals in the boys 8 and under division. John Faber had three first place medals in freestyle, butterfly and individual medley.

Morgan Ohrman, John Faber, Kortney Bredemeier and Kyle Finley also took a first in the 8 and under medley relay.

Karlton Leiker, 9 and 10 age group, had first place recognition in freestyle and individual medley. Kalen Rasmussen took three first place medals in the 11 and 12 age group, for his performance in butterfly, breaststroke, and individual medley.
