

‘And now the pitch...’

SHERRY BARRETT/Colby Free Press

Colby K-18 pitcher Levi Schlick delivered a fast one to an Atwood batter in action Thursday night at Atwood. Colby was in Atwood for a double-header. The score of the first game was Colby 21, Atwood 3, with Schlick pitching. The score of the second game was Colby 6, Atwood 7 with Brent Aramberger pitching. The team will see action again on Sunday, in Colby, for a double-header with Hays, starting at 6 p.m. Monday, the team will play St. Francis, also in Colby at 6:30 p.m.

Houston gets the Royals’ Beltran

HOUSTON (AP) — Star center fielder Carlos Beltran was traded from Kansas City to the Houston Astros on Thursday night as part of a three-way deal that also sent reliever Octavio Dotel to Oakland. The last-place Royals wound up with three prospects: highly touted third baseman Mark Teahen and right-hander Mike Wood from Oakland, and catcher John Buck from the Astros. “This is obviously huge for our organization,” Astros general manager Gerry Hunsicker said. “Carlos Beltran is one of the most exciting, complete players in our game today.” “He’s the prototype we’ve been looking for for a long time. He’s going to be a very exciting force for us in the middle of our lineup,” he said. Beltran can become a free agent this fall — but for now, he joined a team clearly going all out this year to win its first World Series. The Astros spent millions last offseason to bring pitchers Roger Clemens and Andy Pettitte to Houston. Clemens, who already ended one brief retirement, agreed only to a one-year deal, while longtime stars Jeff Bagwell and Craig Biggio are nearing the end of their careers. Last week, the Astros traded right fielder Richard Hidalgo to the New York Mets for reliever David Weathers and a minor league pitcher. This time, Houston pulled off a much bigger deal. “When you have a chance to get an All-Star like Beltran, you do it, then you worry about filling in holes. He significantly makes us better, he is an impact player and will have an effect on our ballclub,” Hunsicker said.

Nolan fills college sports slot

Colby Community College President Dr. Mikel Ary today announced the selection of Ray Nolan as the sports information director for the institution. “We are very pleased that Ray will be assuming the duties of sports information,” said Ary. “His dependability and people skills have particularly impressed all of us at the college who have had the privilege to work with Ray. I further believe he will bring a positive dimension to sports information that will include depth of perspective as well as continuity,” he said. “We look forward to the positive contributions he will make to the athletic department,” Ary added. Tom Dreiling, Colby Free Press publisher, said, “Ray’s selection as sports information director has ‘positive’ written all over it. He has been a weekly columnist for us and generated a sizable following.” “In his expanded role, we look forward to his input, his commentary and his articulate style of presentation,” Dreiling said. Nolan, a native of Redwood City, Calif., is in his sixth season as the assistant baseball coach for the Trojans. He played second base for the College of San Mateo and the University of Redlands where he earned his bachelor’s degree in history in 1998. Nolan continued his education at St. Mary’s College of California where he earned a master’s degree in health, physical education and recreation in 2002. In addition to his coaching duties, he assists with recruiting and fundraising for the baseball squad. He also directs the college intramural program and was the fitness lab manager for 2003-04. Nolan will begin his duties as sports information director immediately.
