

A Bissitt basket

SHERRY BARRETT/Colby Free Press

Beau Bissitt (#10) shot one for the Colby Eagle boys' 8th grade team in Saturday's game against Goodland in the Colby MAYB weekend tournament.

Thanks, all, for a really great ride

This is my final column for the Colby Free Press. I would like to begin by simply saying "thank you!" to: TD (Free Press publisher) for allowing me to keep everyone informed; to all of our friends; to our Catholic Church community! There are so many people that have been involved in the lives of Julie, our children, and me. It would take up more space in this column than I have to list each of you. Please know how important you have been in our lives. We will miss you!

● Keeping in Touch

Many were surprised when I announced that I was leaving for SMS-West Plains. I did have full intentions of returning for a sixth season at Colby Community College. In fact I didn't take an NCAA DII position (Bemidji State, Minn.). I, too, was surprised when SMS-WP called and asked if I was interested in their vacant coaching position. This junior college job is arguably one of the top five in the nation. When SMS-WP offered me the head coaching position it was an offer that I couldn't pass up. Their expectations are very high. Hopefully, over the past few years, expectations at Colby Community College have been raised to an all-time high. Great expectations are a very good thing.

Change is going to be a good thing for the future of the Colby Trojan basketball program. Several things are changing for the better that would not have changed had Chad (Brian's brother and assistant head coach) and I not left. The new coach has a greater financial commitment from the college. All the resources are now in place for the program to finish in the top 4 in the Jayhawk West every season (we finished tied for 2nd and tied for 3rd the past two years). The Colby job attracted some very good candidates and they were able to hire a new coach that has already been a big winner.

When a coach leaves a program he certainly wants to leave the program in better shape than when he arrived. I am proud to say that we have accomplished this goal. Perhaps the best group of in-state players will be wearing Trojan blue in 2004-2005. There is a great fan base now in place.

Certainly, one challenge for the new coach will be to sign 6 out of state players. I realize many are upset that both Andrais Thornton and Onatrio McKee have decided to transfer. Kids from big cities end up at far away places because of their relationship with the coaches. This is a fact of college athletics. Besides, the new coach has a track record and should have no problem signing six players.

Finally, thank you to the Colby Community College administration, faculty and staff. Thank you to all those who supported our program and thank you Trojan fans! No one was prouder to be a Trojan than Brian Ostermann. I now will be a Trojan fan!

Here is the link to my website. Please add to your favorites list. I am in the process of updating my contacts list so several will be added and others removed. I realize some will not need to be on this list and others will not want to be on my mailing list. Just let me know and I'll remove your name and trust me I will not be offended. Thanks!
